LEAWOOD, Kan.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- AMC Entertainment Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: AMC) (the "Company," or "AMC"), announced today that it has priced $2,000 million aggregate principal amount of 8.875% first lien notes due 2031 (the "Notes") in a private offering (the "Offering"). The Company also announced that it has priced $850 million of first lien term loans, bearing interest at SOFR plus 4.50% with an original issue discount of 1.50%, to be incurred under a new term loan facility (the "New 1L Term Loan Facility"). The Offering and the New 1L Term Loan Facility, together with the Company's previously announced $1,120 million second lien term loan facility with Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch (the "New 2L Term Loan Facility" and, together with the New 1L Term Loan Facility, the "New Term Loan Facilities"), are expected to close on or around October 5, 2026, subject to customary closing conditions.

The Notes and New Term Loan Facilities will be guaranteed on a senior secured basis by certain of the Company's existing and future direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, including Muvico, LLC ("Muvico"), Odeon Cinemas Group Limited ("OCGL") and certain subsidiaries of OCGL.

The net proceeds from the Offering, together with the proceeds from the New Term Loan Facilities, and cash on hand, will be used (i) to fund the tender offer (the "Tender Offer") for the Company's outstanding 7.500% Senior Secured Notes due 2029 (the "AMC Secured Notes"), (ii) to fund the redemption on or about February 15, 2027 of any AMC Secured Notes that are not tendered or accepted for purchase in the tender offer, (iii) to fund the redemption in full of Muvico's $903.4 million aggregate principal amount of Senior Secured Notes due 2029 (the "Muvico 1.5L Notes"), (iv) to repay the Company's existing term loan facility in full, (v) to repay in full the existing term loan facility of Odeon Finco PLC, a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of OCGL and an indirect subsidiary of AMC, and (vi) to pay related fees, costs, premiums and expenses in connection with such transactions. In connection with the Offering, the Company expects to deliver a notice of conditional full redemption to holders of the Muvico 1.5L Notes to redeem the Muvico 1.5L Notes in full (the "Redemption"). The Tender Offer is, and the Redemption is expected to be, conditioned upon the consummation of the Offering and entry into the New Term Loan Facilities and/or other debt financing transactions resulting in aggregate gross proceeds to the Company of at least $3,970 million, contemporaneously with or prior to the applicable settlement date or redemption date.

The Notes and related guarantees were offered only to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and outside the United States, only to non-U.S. investors pursuant to Regulation S. These risks, trends, uncertainties and facts include, but are not limited to: the sufficiency of AMC's existing cash and cash equivalents and available borrowing capacity; AMC's ability to obtain additional liquidity, which if not realized or insufficient to generate the material amounts of additional liquidity that will be required unless it is able to achieve more normalized levels of operating revenues, likely would result with AMC seeking an in-court or out-of-court restructuring of its liabilities; the effectiveness of the refinancing transactions completed in the third quarter of 2025 and the ability to further equitize existing debt; increased use of alternative film delivery methods or other forms of entertainment; the continued recovery of the North American and international box office; AMC's significant indebtedness, including its ability to meet its covenants and limitations on AMC's ability to take advantage of certain business opportunities imposed by such covenants; shrinking exclusive theatrical release windows; the seasonality of AMC's revenue and working capital; intense competition in the geographic areas in which AMC operates; risks relating to impairment losses, including with respect to goodwill and other intangibles, and theatre and other closure charges; motion picture production, promotion, marketing, and performance including labor stoppages affecting the production, supply and release schedule of theatrical motion picture content and choice of distributors to release fewer feature-length films as a result of the additional financial burden imposed by tariffs; the use of artificial intelligence ("AI") technology in the filmmaking process and audience acceptance of movies made utilizing AI technology; general and international economic, political, regulatory and other risks, including but not limited to rising interest rates; AMC's lack of control over distributors of films; limitations on the availability of capital, including on the authorized number of shares of the Company's Class A common stock (the "Common Stock"); dilution of voting power caused by recent sales of Common Stock and through the issuance of Common Stock underlying Muvico's exchangeable notes and the issuance of preferred stock; future offerings of debt, which would be senior to the Common Stock for purposes of distributions or upon liquidation, and which could adversely affect the market price of the Common Stock; AMC's ability to achieve expected synergies, benefits and performance from its strategic initiatives; AMC's ability to refinance its indebtedness on favorable terms; AMC's ability to optimize its theatre circuit; limitations on AMC's ability to utilize interest expense deductions annually under Section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as amended by the One Big Beautiful Bill Act of 2025; AMC's ability to recognize interest deduction carryforwards, net operating loss carryforwards, and other tax attributes to reduce future tax liability; supply chain disruptions, labor shortages, increased cost and inflation; and other factors discussed in the reports AMC has filed with the SEC. Should one or more of these risks, trends, uncertainties, or facts materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by the forward-looking statements contained herein.
