VHC Health Signs Multi-Year Renewal of Digital Front Door Application with Phunware

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 16, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Phunware, Inc. \(NASDAQ: PHUN\) (the "Company"), a fully-integrated enterprise cloud platform for mobile that provides products, solutions, data and services for brands worldwide, has announced a five-year contract renewal to license its digital front door and patented location-based services to VHC Health.

"The adoption of a native, mobile-centric digital front door signifies the forefront of innovation that healthcare providers must embrace to revolutionize their approach to patient care. We are pleased that VHC Health's leadership has reaffirmed their partnership with Phunware, acknowledging its critical role in delivering an exceptional patient experience," said Cody Wimbish, Phunware VP of Program Management & Customer Success.

Key features of Phunware's Digital Front Door include:

- Mobile Application: Native iOS and Android applications optimized for healthcare that can take advantage of core device capabilities that make experiences more secure, intuitive, and personalized.
- Wayfinding: Easily navigate VHC Health's main campus with real-time instructions.
- MyChart integration which allows patients to view in real-time information on their vital signs, laboratory results, medical procedures, and medications.
- MyChart video visit functionality to leverage the patient's phone camera to conduct virtual appointments.
- Save parking location with a photo and leave a detailed note.
- Physician and Services Directories: Access directories, which include contact information and tap-to-call buttons.

"The renewal of our partnership with Phunware is an exciting step forward in our commitment to delivering a comprehensive suite of services through a unified mobile app for the VHC community. Beyond simplifying patient interactions, such as scheduling appointments and accessing remote telehealth services and provider messaging, this innovative wayfinding technology is a transformative solution that empowers patients to easily navigate the VHC campus," said Mike Mistretta, Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer of VHC Health.
