Salem Media Group Announces Transfer of Salem Music Networks to Christian FM Media

CAMARILLO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Salem Media Group, Inc. (OTCQX: SALM) announced today the transfer of ownership of the Today's Christian Music and Today's Worship Music networks to the Christian FM Media Group. This transfer has provided seamless programming services to continue for all Salem Music affiliates as Christian FM Media assumed network operations on February 1. The Salem Music Networks were affected by the recent divestiture of Salem's Contemporary Christian Music ("CCM") stations. Concerned for the programming needs of affiliates, Salem sought out Christian FM to ensure that affiliates continued to have the highest quality programming content available. The transfer announced today offers affiliates the option to easily and immediately continue with great CCM programming. Today's Christian Music and Today's Worship Music will continue to operate as unique networks. Christian FM's SmartRadio Suite affiliates will continue to operate independently as well, and all market exclusivity agreements will remain.

Allen Power, Salem President of Broadcast Media commented, "Our recent divestitures led to understandable uncertainty for our Music Network affiliates. Thanks to this partnership with Christian FM, we have been able to quickly provide those affiliates with a fairly seamless opportunity to maintain excellent CCM/Worship Music programming on their stations. The team at Christian FM and SmartRadio Suite has collaborated wonderfully to create a new programming home for our affiliates."

Jon Hamilton, Christian FM's President commented, "We are delighted to be able to carry the important legacy of the Salem Music Network into the future. Many of the wonderful talent associated with Salem's network and local CCM stations will be working with us and will continue to encourage listeners on affiliated stations across America." Hamilton added, "In the months ahead, we will be making some exciting new delivery technology available to these stations, allowing even greater music flexibility and more personality choices. Christian FM has long been known for creating unique custom content to stations and we intend to expand this capability to the TCM and TWM affiliates as well."

Jayme Summers, current Program Director and Operations Manager for the Salem Music Networks, has joined Christian FM in that same role for TCM and TWN.
