Copper Property CTL Pass Through Trust Issues Monthly/Quarterly Reporting Package for December 2021

--News Direct--

Copper Property CTL Pass Through Trust (“the Trust”), has filed a Form 8-K containing its monthly/quarterly report for the period ended December 31, 2021. An aggregate total distribution of $600.9 million or $8.011351 per trust certificate will be paid on January 10, 2022 to certificateholders of record as of January 7, 2022. The total distribution includes a $595.3 million aggregate net sales proceeds distribution, as well as a $5.6 million net operations distribution.

As previously announced, on December 17, 2021, the Trust sold its portfolio of six distribution centers for a sales price of $557 million. Due to this sale and the subsequent sale of two retail assets in December, the Trust held an extraordinary amount of cash pending the next permitted distribution on January 10, 2022. Therefore, on December 30, 2021, the Trust amended its Amended and Restated Pass Through Trust Agreement, dated January 30, 2021 (the “Trust Agreement”), without the consent of its certificateholders (as provided in the Trust Agreement), to permit the Trust to invest moneys held by the Trust instead of holding them in non-interest bearing accounts. A copy of the amendments to the Trust Agreement was filed as Exhibit 3.1 to Form 8-K, filed on January 5, 2022 with the SEC.

The Trust used the flexibility created by the amendments to invest the funds held pending the January 10, 2022 distribution in a manner that precluded principal risk since December 31, 2021, while ensuring that the Trust could satisfy the timing and manner of distributions required by the Trust Agreement. The funds were invested in a U.S. government money market fund sponsored by a major bulge bracket investment banking firm, which invests at least 99.5% of its assets in (i) cash, (ii) securities issued or guaranteed by the United States or certain U.S. government agencies or instrumentalities and/or (iii) repurchase agreements that are collateralized fully.

Additional information can be obtained on the Monthly Distribution Statement, which can be found on the Trust’s website at <https://www.ctltrust.net/>.
