Norwegian Cruise Line Announces the Pricing of Its $300,000,000 Senior Notes Offering

MIAMI, Feb. 1, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Norwegian Cruise Line (NCL Corporation Ltd., "Norwegian" or the "Company"), a subsidiary of Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. (Nasdaq:NCLH), announced today that it entered into an agreement to sell $300 million aggregate principal amount of 5.00% senior unsecured notes due February 2018 (the "Notes") in connection with a private offering (the "Offering") that is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The Notes are to be issued at an issue price of 99.451%.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering, together with borrowings under its senior secured revolving credit facilities, to redeem its $450 million 11.75% senior secured notes due 2016.

The Notes are being offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A under the Securities Act, and outside the United States, only to non-U.S. investors pursuant to Regulation S. The Notes will not be initially registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an effective registration statement or an applicable exemption from registration requirements or a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act or any state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offering, solicitation or sale would be unlawful. This press release is being issued pursuant to and in accordance with Rule 135c under the Securities Act.
