MIAMI, May 28, 2025: Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra luxury cruise line, has unveiled the stunning suite designs aboard its newest ship, Seven Seas Prestige™. Marking the beginning of a new legacy of elegance, the ship introduces all-new suite categories, including two-story Skyview Suites with serene private roof-top terraces, the expansive two-level Grand Loft Suites with dramatic floor-to-ceiling windows, and the Horizon Penthouse Suite featuring oversized balconies for breathtaking ocean views.

Nearly all 12 suite categories have now been revealed - from the up to 440 sq. ft. Deluxe Veranda Suites to the 2,037 sq. ft. Signature Suites - with the highly anticipated Skyview Regent Suite, a brand-new suite category in its own right, set to be unveiled at a later date.

"At Regent, we pride ourselves on delivering Unrivaled Space at Sea, and with the accommodations aboard Seven Seas Prestige™, I can confidently say that we have once again raised the bar with this collection of suites offering an unparalleled luxury unlike anything the cruise industry has seen before," said Jason Montague, chief luxury officer for Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "Debating in late 2026, guests will be able to experience these extraordinary accommodations while sailing to the world's most sought-after destinations and enjoying the highest standards of service through our signature Heartfelt Hospitality. Excitement for Seven Seas Prestige™ is already sky-high, and we know our discerning guests are eagerly anticipating reservations opening on June 25, 2025."

Designed by Studio DADO, the 411 all-balcony suites showcase exceptional craftsmanship and meticulous attention to detail — qualities that will be evident throughout the 77,000-ton, 822-guest Seven Seas Prestige. Beginning a new legacy of elegance that will be Unrivaled at Sea™, every accommodation aboard Seven Seas Prestige is a masterpiece of design and comfort, building on Regent's storied heritage by reimagining the classic, beloved suites found across The World's Most Luxurious Fleet®, as well as adding innovative new categories.

"The suites aboard Seven Seas Prestige exemplify the ultimate blend of classic elegance and modern sophistication," said Yohandel Ruiz, founding partner, Studio DADO. "Each suite showcases a seamless fusion of old-world craft and contemporary design, with each space offering a blend of comfort, style, and elegance. We're especially excited about the debut of the Skyview Suites. The space. The view. They'll make for a truly unforgettable experience."

Claudia Farfan, associate, Studio DADO, added, “Our goal was to design the suites with a high-end residential feel so they are warm and welcoming. We relied on a neutral palette throughout, which gives a classic, almost timeless feel, but used pops of gem-like color to keep the designs fresh and contemporary.”

As part of The Most Inclusive Luxury Experience® all suites benefit from Regent’s Heartfelt Hospitality delivered by a welcoming and anticipatory crew, as well as an ever-expanding menu of inclusive amenities, allowing guests to enjoy a relaxed, pampered, and truly carefree vacation. Luxuries that come as part of the voyage fare include unlimited shore excursions; gourmet cuisine across 11 specialty restaurants and al fresco dining venues — including Azure, a new mezze-style Mediterranean dining concept; beverages including fine wines and spirits; onboard entertainment; unlimited Starlink WiFi access; valet laundry service; pre-paid gratuities; a one-night pre-cruise hotel package for guests in Concierge-level suites and above; and butler service for those in Penthouse Suites and higher.
