Union Rescue Mission Recognizes Herbalife Executive as Humanitarian of the Year

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Global nutrition company, Herbalife (NYSE: HLF), announces that Diahanna Brown, vice president, worldwide events and promotions, was awarded the Humanitarian of the Year Award by Union Rescue Mission (URM) in Los Angeles, California.

The Paul Shoop Humanitarian Award was established in honor of one of URM's most dedicated board members, Paul Shoop. He and his family were very active in all aspects of the Mission until a few years ago, when Paul was diagnosed with a very rare type of cancer. Paul Shoop was, and continues to be, the epitome of what it means to serve selflessly with time, talent and treasure.

According to URM's leadership, Brown has been a tireless contributor to the organization's mission and has faithfully supported the philanthropic efforts of the Mission/Hope Gardens, by donating her time, amazing talent and treasure.

"There's no doubt in our mind that Diahanna Brown is an excellent example of a role model philanthropist. The award is a small token of our appreciation for her ongoing partnership and friendship," stated Rev. Andy Bales, URM CEO.
