Herbalife Celebrates Diversity in Leadership

Gala Events Recognize Hispanic and Asian American and Pacific Islander Leaders and Heritage

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Global nutrition company Herbalife is proud to sponsor the annual galas of the Congressional Hispanic Leadership Institute (CHLI) and Asian Pacific American Institute for Congressional Studies (APAICS) taking place this week in Washington, D.C. Herbalife supports both organizations' leadership development programs and serves on their advisory bodies.

The CHLI Annual Gala and Leadership Awards will take place Wednesday, May 13. The event will recognize former President of Colombia, Álvaro Uribe Vélez, with the International Relations Award. Jeb Bush, former governor of Florida, will also be honored with the Leadership in Public Service Award. Herbalife supports CHLI's fellowship program for Hispanic youth. In addition, the company serves on CHLI's Corporate Advisory Board.

Herbalife is also sponsoring the annual APAICS Awards Gala Dinner on Thursday, May 14. The event, which coincides with Asian Pacific American Heritage Month, honors Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) individuals and organizations that politically empower the AAPI community. U.S. Surgeon General Vice Admiral Dr. Vivek Murthy will present the keynote address and former President George H.W. Bush will receive a lifetime achievement award. Herbalife has sponsored the event for the past two years. The company also serves on APAICS's National Advisory Council and hosts APAICS congressional fellows at its Washington, D.C. office.

"Herbalife is a company dedicated to empowering communities through opportunities for a better life. The work of APAICS and CHLI embody this principle and lay the groundwork for future generations of diverse leadership that will drive the success of our country," said Angela Arboleda, Herbalife vice president for government and community affairs. Arboleda continued, "These partnerships are important to Herbalife because they reflect the communities where we live and the global marketplace we serve. We congratulate CHLI and APAICS on their galas and look forward to celebrating their success."

"CHLI appreciates Herbalife's partnership in working to open doors for Hispanic youth," said CHLI's executive director, Mary Ann Gomez. "Through Herbalife's support for our internship and youth leadership programs, we are providing life-changing experiences in the nation's capital for Hispanic students who may not otherwise be exposed to the inner workings of Congress. Together we are building the next generation of Hispanic leadership."

"Herbalife recognizes the importance of diverse voices being part of the decision-making process and we appreciate their support of this year's APAICS Awards Gala Dinner and our congressional fellowship program," said Floyd Mori, APAICS's president and CEO. "From Congress to statehouses to city councils to the White House, our leaders must include AAPI communities and others that make up the vibrancy of this country. We look forward to continued collaboration with Herbalife in pursuit of this important mission.”
