

Clear Channel Outdoor Inspiring Las Vegas Businesses with Free Creative Summit to Help Build and Strengthen Their Companies

Free Summit Focused on Creative Marketing Being offered to Las Vegas area Businesses

LAS VEGAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Today, Clear Channel Outdoor is sponsoring a free Creative Summit for local Las Vegas area businesses to educate them about how to use creative advertising to build their brands and sell more products and services. The Creative Summit is being held in the Cabaret Jazz at the Smith Center for the Performing Arts in Las Vegas.

The Creative Summit will showcase two speakers followed by a panel discussion then lunch. The speakers will include Tony Alwin, Vice President of Creative from Clear Channel Outdoor and legendary creative advertising guru Rick Robinson. In addition to the presentations, businesses will have access to a “creative fair” which includes a creative inspiration station with examples of effective creative and tips on how businesses can best drive Las Vegas tourists and residents to their brand.

“We are proud to host an event which provides Las Vegas businesses with the inspiration and understanding to help them build or strengthen their businesses,” said Bill Kurr, President of Clear Channel Outdoor – Las Vegas. “We want to inspire creativity through advertising and marketing so businesses can break through this very vibrant and busy city to reach visitors and residents of Las Vegas.”

In today’s challenging economic environment, Las Vegas businesses are struggling to grow their businesses or in many cases, keep them afloat. Reaching consumers is becoming challenging as consumers are in more control of the content they consume and whether to see advertising. Outdoor advertising is the most affordable and effective advertising channel for Las Vegas businesses versus alternatives like TV, online and social media advertising.
