Camber Energy Subsidiary Lineal Star Holdings Signs Non-Binding LOI to Purchase Evercon Energy LLC in College Station, Texas

HOUSTON, TX / ACCESSWIRE / September 5, 2019 / Camber Energy, Inc. (NYSE American:CEI) ("Camber" or the "Company") based in Houston, Texas, today announced that its subsidiary Lineal Star Holdings, LLC ("Lineal"), has executed an LOI (non-binding) to purchase EverconEnergy LLC (www.EverconEnergy.com), headquartered in College Station, Texas. Evercon provides pipeline solutions and field services, project management and inspection services, energy infrastructure maintenance, facilities construction, fabrication and Heavy Civil Construction services. Brian Stiles, President and Founder of Evercon, will remain with the company as President and will retain a profit interest in the company should the transaction be completed. Mr. Stiles commented, "We are excited about the prospects for growth with Lineal Star, and believe their reputation and support will help us leverage our contractual relationships throughout Texas, especially with the State's recently announced $77 billion Texas Highway construction capital plan."

Craig Crawford, COO of Lineal commented, "Evercon and Brian add key top tier relationships and capabilities in a strategic geographic area that enables us to use the capabilities within Lineal across new industry segments and geographies. We believe these synergies will bring growth and increased revenue, and, subject to the completion of due diligence, and our entry into a mutually agreed acquisition agreement, we anticipate closing this transaction in October 2019."
