Stealth Technologies Inc. to Expand DRTV Production into Automotive Market

LARGO, FL, Sept. 12, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Stealth Technologies Inc. (OTC PINK: STTH), a company engaged in the business of identifying and capitalizing on emerging technology and associated markets, is pleased to announce the expansion of its production capabilities into the automotive market.

After seeing continued success in the safety and security space, Stealth has now entered into a new category with the addition of an automotive safety product scheduled to launch within the next 30 days. The product is designed to provide communication and assistance in an emergency situation.

"The expansion into products catering to the automotive industry continues to advance our goals of revenue diversification. We look forward to the product's launch with high expectations for Q4." Said CEO Brian McFadden.

"The addition of another production deal allows us expedited revenue expansion without the financial constraints of inventory and high upfront costs," said McFadden. "Our shift in business model should allow for more profitable revenue as we head into Q4 and 2020."
