Commentary - Cheryl Beranek, President & CEO of Clearfield

"Record second-quarter revenue and gross margin dollars were driven by fiber-to-the-home and fiber-to-the-business projects within the U.S. with incremental revenue from emerging international markets. The company also experienced success in meeting the fiber connectivity and management needs associated with the delivery of fiber to the cell tower and antenna. Strong continued relationships with both our direct customers as well as our distribution channel contributed to the Company's growth.

"While broadband service providers continue to evaluate the uncertainty associated with governmental regulation and economic factors that significantly affected last year's second quarter revenues and continued throughout the 2012 calendar year, there has been some increase in clarity. We see the investment in capital equipment relating to fiber-to-the-home and fiber-to-the-antenna beginning to strengthen."

"Revenues and gross profits were positively affected by a higher percentage of product sales associated with optical component technologies. Our FiberDeep fiber termination process, which enables us to deliver terminated fiber products, such as optical components, with a performance guarantee twice that of the industry standard, is a crucial differentiator of these technologies. In addition, the significant increase in volumes over the previous fiscal year allows the company to better absorb the overhead costs associated with our manufacturing processes."

"The majority of operating expense increases were the results of variable costs associated with compensation initiatives designed to drive our performance. Approximately $400,000 of our $694,000 operating expense increase was additional sales commissions and accrued incentive costs. In addition, in comparison to the same period last year, the company incurred an increase of approximately $100,000 in non-cash expense associated with previously issued equity grants."

"As a result of significant project business awarded during the quarter, bookings for the second quarter of 2013 surpassed revenue by $2.9 million, with the company posting a record backlog of $4.6 million. The Company previously announced that we have entered into a lease agreement that increases manufacturing and warehouse space in our facility by 30%. The Company continues to make controlled investments in inventory to ensure we can continue to provide the quick-turn lead-time our customers demand and deserve. "

"While our balance sheet remains strong with no debt and nearly $20 million in cash, cash equivalents and investments, the Company made investments during the quarter in capital equipment associated with the manufacture of new product offerings and cost reduction initiatives."

"The Company recently announced new pushable fiber technology with the introduction of FieldShield. FieldShield enhances our product portfolio with a line of fiber microcable, microduct and associated pushable fiber connectors. While yet early in the market, we are positioning the Company for growth with the emerging trends toward micro-trenching fiber direct to the home, business and tower."

"As we reported last quarter, the Company incurred a higher tax expense compared to a year ago as a result of the release of the deferred tax valuation allowance in fiscal 2012. We do not anticipate further changes to the valuation allowance for deferred taxes in fiscal 2013; as a result, our income statement will now reflect increased income tax expense over the fiscal year 2012. A majority of the tax expense has a non-cash effect on the operating cash flow of the business."

About Clearfield, Inc

Clearfield, Inc. (Nasdaq:CLFD) designs, manufactures and distributes fiber optic management products for the communications networks of leading ILECS, CLECs, MSO/cable TV companies and mobile broadband providers. We help service providers solve the Fiber Puzzle, which is how to reduce high costs associated with deploying, managing, protecting and scaling a fiber optic network to deliver the mobile, residential and business services customers want. Based on the patented Clearview™ Cassette, our unique single-architected, modular fiber management platform is designed to lower the cost of broadband deployment and maintenance by consolidating, protecting and distributing incoming and outgoing fiber circuits and enable our customers to scale their operations as their subscriber revenues increase. Headquartered in Plymouth, MN, Clearfield deploys more than a million fiber ports each year.
