PowerFleet Reports First Quarter 2020 Financial Results

WOODCLIFF LAKE, N.J., May 14, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- PowerFleet, Inc. (Nasdaq: PWFL), a global leader and provider of subscription-based wireless IoT and M2M solutions for securing, controlling, tracking, and managing high-value enterprise assets, reported results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2020.

Q1 2020 Financial and Operational Highlights

- Generated $30.8 million in total revenue, including $17.6 million (57% of total revenue) of high margin, recurring and services revenue
- Produced $2.8 million in operating cash flow
- Maintained solid liquidity position with $16.6 million in cash and cash equivalents and $24.1 million of working capital
- Recognized by Department of Homeland Security as key technology supplier, providing continuity of product and services to customers to date

Management Commentary

“Our uninterrupted operational execution in the first quarter is a testament to our organization’s commitment to helping our customers and partners meet the increasing demands and challenges from the global COVID-19 pandemic,” said CEO Chris Wolfe. “While we did see some orders get temporarily postponed in late March, which impacted our results in the period, we were still able to generate $30.8 million in total revenue, $17.6 million in high-margin, recurring and services revenue, and $2.8 million of operating cash flow, demonstrating our business model’s resiliency.

“Recognizing the ongoing uncertainty from the COVID-19 crisis and its effects on the global economy, we enacted several precautionary measures to further ensure our business remains financially secure and our long-term viability remains intact. In March, we implemented a cost savings plan to reduce our operating costs and further optimize our organization. We expect that will begin to see the benefit of these cost saving initiatives starting in the second quarter. These proactive measures coupled with our solid cash and liquidity position give us confidence that we will not only weather this storm but come out stronger when the economy recovers.

“PowerFleet continues to provide the critical customer support during these times to enable our customers to react quickly and safely as they move critical cargo across the globe. Our technology is relied upon by global enterprises across the food distribution supply chain, including Walmart, Nestle, Proctor & Gamble, General Mills, Publix, and Kraft. These companies are the backbone of the U.S. and global food distribution supply chain and we are committed to supporting these critical operations at this time.

“While we have seen some orders temporarily being postponed, we have not had any significant cancellations, which keeps us cautiously optimistic about the deals in our pipeline. One notable win in our first quarter was the world's largest online retailer, who selected one of our forklift manufacturing partners to deploy our technology at several U.S. sites in the second quarter. We were also selected by one of the world's largest logistics companies to deploy our industrial mobility solutions in nearly all their U.S. facilities in the second half of 2020. We're seeing an equal amount of opportunities abroad as well, including a major 3,000-unit tender we won in South Africa and a similar-sized deal in Mexico.

"While these are encouraging trends, we do see the start of our second quarter being impacted by order postponements, but this may change as countries and states open up their economies in May. The proactive cost savings measures we've taken in the near-term will allow us to drive our business forward today and the resiliency in our business model and the secular growth drivers ensure that our business is positioned for growth in a post COVID-19 environment."

First Quarter 2020 Financial Results

Financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2020 include consolidated results for both I.D. Systems, Inc. and Pointer Telocation Ltd., which was acquired on October 3, 2019. Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement its financial statements presented in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), PowerFleet provides certain non-GAAP measures of financial performance. These non-GAAP measures include adjusted EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA per basic and diluted share. Reference to these non-GAAP measures should be considered in addition to results prepared under current accounting standards, but are not a substitute for, or superior to, GAAP results. These non-GAAP measures are provided to enhance investors' overall understanding of PowerFleet's current financial performance. Specifically, PowerFleet believes the non-GAAP measures provide useful information to both management and investors by excluding certain expenses, gains and losses that may not be indicative of its core operating results and business outlook. Adjusted EBITDA is not a measure of financial performance or liquidity under GAAP and, accordingly, should not be considered as an alternate to net income or cash flow from operating activities as an indicator of operating performance or liquidity. Because PowerFleet's method for calculating the non-GAAP measures may differ from other companies' methods, the non-GAAP measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. Reconciliation of all non-GAAP measures included in this press release to the nearest GAAP measures can be found in the financial tables included in this press release.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements include statements with respect to PowerFleet's beliefs, plans, goals, objectives, expectations, anticipations, assumptions, estimates, intentions, and future performance, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may be beyond PowerFleet's control, and which may cause its actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be forward-looking statements. For example, forward-looking statements include statements regarding: prospects for additional customers; potential contract values; market forecasts; projections of earnings, revenues, synergies, accretion or other financial information; emerging new products; and plans, strategies and objectives of management for future operations, including growing revenue, controlling operating costs, increasing production volumes, and expanding business with core customers. The risks and uncertainties referred to above include, but are not limited to, future economic and business conditions, the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the acquisition of Pointer, which may be affected by, among other things, the loss of key customers or reduction in the purchase of products by any such customers, the failure of the market for PowerFleet's products to continue to develop, the possibility that PowerFleet may not be able to integrate successfully the business, operations and employees of I.D. Systems and Pointer, the inability to protect PowerFleet's intellectual property, the inability to manage growth, the effects of competition from a variety of local, regional, national and other providers of wireless solutions, and other risks detailed from time to time in PowerFleet's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including PowerFleet's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019. These risks could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements made by, or on behalf of, PowerFleet. Unless otherwise required by applicable law, PowerFleet assumes no obligation to update the information contained in this press release, and expressly disclaims any obligation to do so, whether a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
