Altra Kendall is planned to be a 342-unit luxury mid-rise apartment community offering one-, two-, and three-bedroom rental apartment homes. It is expected that the community's offerings to its residents will include membership to The Club, which is planned to include a 24/7 fitness center and yoga room, a café lounge with a coffee station, two business centers, a co-working area with a conference room, and a game room, as well as a resort-style swimming pool with pool cabanas and a recreational pavilion area, a playground, and park for pets. Altra Kendall is planned to be Florida Green Building Coalition certified. The Altman Companies expects to deliver the first units at Altra Kendall in 2024.

Upon the closing of the financing for the development, in addition to certain indirect interests in the development based on its ownership interest in The Altman Companies, BBXRE directly invested approximately $1.5 million in the managing member of the joint venture formed by The Altman Companies to invest in the development of Altra Kendall and approximately $4.2 million in the joint venture as additional equity alongside non-managing members.
