Capstone CEO Interviewed by Business News Network and Announces Scheduled Participation at the Upcoming Oppenheimer Emerging Growth Conference on May 17, 2016 in New York City

CHATSWORTH, Calif., May 11, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Capstone Turbine Corporation (www.capstoneturbine.com) (Nasdaq:CPST), the world's leading clean technology manufacturer of microturbine energy systems, reported today that Darren Jamison, President and Chief Executive Officer of Capstone Turbine was interviewed on May 5th, while in New York City, by the Canadian Business News Network. In addition, the company announced that Mr. Jamison will be participating in the Oppenheimer Emerging Growth Conference on May 17th in New York City. The day will feature one-on-one meetings with emerging growth companies in the consumer, technology, industrial and energy sectors.

Mr. Jamison and Mrs. Jayme Brooks, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer, will be available for one-on-one meetings at the conference. Institutional investors interested in arranging a meeting with Capstone's management team are encouraged to contact their Oppenheimer & Co. Inc. institutional sales representative, or by calling Cheryl Schneider of Dian Griesel International at 212-825-3210.

The Business News Network (BNN) is received by more than 5.5 million Canadian households and is viewed primarily by retail investors, financial professionals and managers, owners and executives.

The video is available to view online on Capstone's website under Investor Relations <http://ir.capstoneturbine.com/media-events>.

During the interview with BNN, Mr. Jamison discussed the benefits of Capstone microturbines, their applications, the advantages of using microturbines instead of buying power from the electrical grid, the potential financial payback to customers, as well as answering several financial questions about the company. In addition, Mr. Jamison explained the recent macroeconomic headwinds faced by the company and spoke optimistically about the future.
