

JCPenney Launches Style on the Go Curbside Pickup at 50 Additional Locations

The Company continues focus on delivering engaging customer experiences

PLANO, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- JCPenney (NYSE: JCP) today announced that it will expand curbside pickup services to 50 additional locations across the U.S. JCPenney Style on the Go Curbside Pickup offers customers the option to quickly grab online orders without leaving the comfort of their car. The expansion comes after a successful pilot at the Company's Brand-Defining Store, where customers responded positively to the speed and ease of the experience.

"Style on the Go Curbside Pickup is all about our customers and how they want to shop. As we continue to put our customers at the heart of everything we do, we continue to create engaging experiences across all touchpoints," said Jim DePaul, executive vice president of stores. "Whether they're shopping online at our flagship store, jcp.com, or through our app, we're helping our customers live life their way through this convenient service."

"We continue to make shopping at our stores even more convenient as we adapt to our customers' needs so they can shop when, where, and how they want," DePaul added.

Style on the Go will be available in several markets across the U.S, including locations in California, Florida, Kentucky, Missouri, New York, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, and West Virginia.

Style on the Go: How it Works

- Shop. While viewing their digital cart, customers can select Free Same Day Pickup or Ship to Store before proceeding to checkout.
- Park. When picking up their orders, customers pull up to a reserved parking spot.
- Call or text. Customers call or send a text to the number posted on the reserved parking sign and provide their parking spot number and order number.
- And go. A JCPenney associate will bring the order out to their car.

Style on the Go is available during local store hours at participating locations.

The Company continues to be guided by its Plan for Renewal, focusing on driving traffic, offering compelling merchandise and providing engaging customer experiences that make shopping easy.
