BEAVERTON, Ore.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Datavault AI Inc. (Nasdaq: DVLT), a leader in AI-driven data experience, valuation and monetization, reported first quarter 2025 financial results in its Form 10-Q, which was filed on May 14, 2025. The Company reaffirmed its 2026 revenue target of $40 million to $50 million and anticipates $12 million to $15 million in revenue in the second half of 2025. In addition, the Company expects close of its acquisition of CompuSystems, Inc. (CSI) during the week of May 19, 2025.

“We continue to build momentum around our core data monetization technologies with key partnerships and commercial breakthroughs,” said Nathaniel T. Bradley, CEO of Datavault AI. “While the first quarter results reflect deliberate, investment-heavy execution, our operational pipeline and the pending CSI acquisition position us to begin unlocking meaningful, high-margin revenue in the second half of this year with accelerating growth in 2026.”

Strategic & Commercial Highlights

- CSI Acquisition Closing: Shareholders approved the acquisition of CSI; closing is expected the week of May 19. The transaction is expected to drive revenue expectations in the second half of 2025 and position DVLT to scale faster.
- IBM’s Partner Plus: Joined this program that will enhance AI-driven data monetization and leverage IBM watsonx™ to improve Datavault’s AI agents and integrates with CLEAR for identity verification.
- ADIO® license to NYIAX: The Company’s patented ADIO® technology was licensed to NYIAX, introducing ultrasonic advertising that delivers data over sound, aiming to revolutionize digital advertising with a privacy-first approach.
- Collaboration with Kove IO: Announced a secure, tokenized data vending solution at IBM Think 2025. The platform integrates Kove’s software-defined memory with Datavault’s Data Vault®, enabling real-time, encrypted data transactions without moving raw data.
- Deal with the NFL Alumni Association: Furthered the Company’s VerifyU commercialization strategy through a 3-year deal with the NFL Alumni Association to mint immutable tokens for NFL alumni, enhancing access to benefits and creating new revenue streams
- Brand Visibility: Featured at IBM Think 2025, CES, and the White House Historical Association, highlighting breakthrough applications in secure data vending, ultrasonic advertising, and digital identity.
