AgriFORCE Growing Systems Reports Upon Progress in its Radical Clean Solutions (RCS) Division

Vancouver, British Columbia, Feb. 25, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AgriFORCE Growing Systems Ltd. (NASDAQ: AGRI), a leading technology-driven innovator, today announced key developments in its Radical Clean Solutions (RCS) division, acquired in August 2024.

The RCS division has made significant strides in scaling operations, with the successful delivery of initial units from a major European purchase order in 2025. These large commercial units were shipped to customers via AgriFORCE's UK-based distribution partner, marking a strong foothold in the European market.

Additionally, the Company has received its first two purchase orders from the Caribbean Basin, one of which is a consignment order aimed at deploying RCS units in Barbados and St. Lucia. As AgriFORCE continues to strengthen its global presence, the RCS division is actively expanding its product catalog and market reach in Western Europe, Latin America, the Caribbean Basin and the Middle East.

Barrett Mooney, Chief Operating Officer of AgriFORCE, commented:

"We've been working closely with the RCS team to enhance both sales and manufacturing efficiency. We are excited about the division's growth, the introduction of new product offerings, and the valuable partnerships helping us bring these cutting-edge solutions to market."
