PNC Amends Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for 2006

No effect on net cash flows, revenues, net income, consolidated balance sheets or shareholders' equity

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 4 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE: PNC) today announced that it has filed an amended Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, affecting the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the year ended December 31, 2006.

The change is limited to the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended December 31, 2006, and does not impact any of the corporation's other financial statements or previously reported results.

This change resulted solely from the misclassification of cash flows related to the corporation's fourth quarter 2006 issuance of perpetual trust securities of $489 million. The cash flows related to the issuance of these securities had been classified within the "Operating Activities" section of the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows. Management has concluded that the impact of this and similar subsequent transactions should be classified within the "Financing Activities" section of the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.
