CHARTER OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
OF U.S. GOLD CORP.

The Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of U.S. Gold Corp., a Nevada corporation (the “Company”) is responsible for the overall design, approval and implementation of the executive compensation plans, policies and programs for officers and other key executives of the Company. This Charter outlines the purpose, composition and responsibilities of the Committee.

I. PURPOSE

The Committee has been established to: (a) assist the Board in seeing that a proper system of long-term and short-term compensation is in place to provide performance oriented incentives to attract and retain management, and that compensation plans are appropriate and competitive and properly reflect the objectives and performance of management and the Company; (b) assist the Board in discharging its responsibilities relating to compensation of the Company’s executive officers; (c) evaluate the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and set his or her remuneration package; (d) make recommendations to the Board with respect to incentive- compensation plans and equity-based plans; and (e) perform such other functions as the Board may from time to time assign to the Committee.

II. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall be composed of at least three, but not more than five, members (including a Chairperson), all of whom shall be “independent,” as such term is defined for directors and compensation committee members in the listing standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“NASDAQ”), as determined by the Board. Additionally, members of the Committee shall qualify as “non-employee directors” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and as “outside directors” for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (“Section 162(m)”). The members of the Committee and the Chairperson shall be selected annually by the Board and serve at the pleasure of the Board. A Committee member (including the Chairperson) may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board. The Committee shall have authority to delegate responsibilities listed herein to subcommittees of the Committee if the Committee determines such delegation would be in the best interest of the Company.

III. MEETING REQUIREMENTS

The Committee shall meet as necessary to enable it to fulfill its responsibilities, but at least twice each year. The Committee shall meet at the call of the Chairperson. The Committee may meet by telephone conference call or by any other means permitted by law or the Company’s Bylaws. A majority of the members, but not less than two members, shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall act on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Without a meeting, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent of all members.

The Committee may ask members of management or others whose advice and counsel are relevant to the issues then being considered by the Committee to attend any meetings and to provide such pertinent information as the Committee may request.

The Chairperson of the Committee shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including preparing the agenda, presiding over Committee meetings, making Committee assignments, reporting on the Committee's activities to the Board and being the lead liaison between the Committee and the Company's management and compensation consultants.

IV. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

In carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Committee's policies and procedures should remain flexible to enable the Committee to react to changes in circumstances. In addition to such other duties as the Board may from time to time assign, the Committee shall have the following responsibilities:

A. Compensation Policies

1. To review and make periodic recommendations to the Board as to the general compensation and benefits policies and practices of the Company;
2. To oversee the assessment of the incentives and risks arising from or related to the Company's compensation policies and practices, including but not limited to those applicable to executive officers, and to evaluate whether the incentives and risks are appropriate;
3. To establish an overall compensation policy applicable to executive officers and periodically review that policy; and
4. To assess the results of the Company's most recent advisory vote on executive compensation.

B. Chief Executive Officer Evaluation and Compensation

1. To (a) review and approve goals and objectives relevant to the Chief Executive Officer's compensation package, (b) establish a procedure for evaluating the Chief Executive Officer's performance, (c) annually evaluate the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in conjunction with the Nominating and Governance Committee in light of the goals and objectives established, and (d) review with the Chief Executive Officer the results of the Committee's performance evaluation. The Chief Executive Officer may not be present during voting or deliberations on his or her compensation;

2. To review, at least annually, and set the base salary and annual and long-term incentive compensation of the Chief Executive Officer, after taking into account the annual evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer; and
3. In evaluating and determining CEO compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation (“Say on Pay Vote”) required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act.

C. Other Executive Officers’ Compensation and Evaluations

1. To (a) review and approve goals and objectives relevant to the other executive officers’ compensation packages, (b) establish a procedure for evaluating such executive officers’ performance, (c) annually evaluate such performance in light of the goals and objectives established, and (d) if requested by the Chief Executive Officer, have the Committee Chairperson review, after completion of the annual evaluation, with each executive officer the results of the Committee’s evaluation of such executive officer’s performance;
2. To review, at least annually, and set the base salary and annual and long-term incentive compensation of the other executive officers, after taking into account the annual evaluation of each such executive officer referred to in the preceding paragraph and the input of the Chief Executive Officer; and
3. In evaluating and determining executive compensation, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent Say on Pay Vote.

D. Incentive-Compensation and Equity-Based Plans

1. To review and to make periodic recommendations to the Board as to the Company’s incentive-compensation plans and equity-based plans;
2. To administer the Company’s equity incentive plan, share tracking awards plans, employee stock purchase plan, supplemental executive retirement plan, change of control severance plan and any similar plans in accordance with their respective plan documents;
3. To review and approve or recommend to the Board, as applicable, (and for stockholder approval where required by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws or other policies) compensation and benefits policies, plans and programs and amendments thereto, and to determine eligible employees and the type, amount and timing of such compensation and benefits; and
4. To oversee the administration of such policies, plans and programs and, on an ongoing basis, to monitor them to assess whether they remain competitive and within the Board’s compensation objectives for executive officers and other members of senior management.

E. Other Duties

1. To review and discuss with management the Company's Compensation Discussion and Analysis section ("CD&A") and related disclosures that Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") rules require be included in the Company's annual report and proxy statement, recommend to the Board based on the review and discussions whether the CD&A should be included in the annual report and proxy statement, and oversee the preparation of the compensation committee report required by SEC rules for inclusion in the Company's annual report and proxy statement;
2. To review and recommend employment agreements and severance arrangements for executive officers, including change-in-control provisions, plans or agreements;
3. To review and consider recommendations from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee with respect to the compensation and benefits of non-employee directors and to recommend any changes to the Board that the Committee deems appropriate;
4. To review the impact of executive compensation that is not deductible under Section 162(m) and to determine the Company's policy with respect to the application of Section 162(m); and
5. To assess, at least annually, whether the work of compensation consultants involved in determining or recommending executive or director compensation has raised any conflict of interest that is required to be disclosed in the Company's annual report and proxy statement.
6. To review and recommend to the Board for approval the frequency with which the Company will conduct Say on Pay Votes, taking into account the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on frequency of Say on Pay Votes required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, and review and approve the proposals regarding the Say on Pay Vote and the frequency of the Say on Pay Vote to be included in the Company's proxy statement.
7. To annually evaluate and the adequacy of the Committee's charter.

V. ADVISORS TO THE COMMITTEE

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain or obtain the advice of such outside counsel, experts, and other advisors, as it deems necessary to carry out its duties, including any compensation consultant used to assist the Committee in the evaluation of director, Chief Executive Officer or executive compensation. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any outside counsel, experts, and other advisors retained by the Committee, and will receive appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, from the Company to pay for such advisor's services. The Committee shall assess the independence of outside counsel, experts, and other advisors (whether retained by the Committee or management) that provide advice to the Committee, in accordance with NASDAQ listing standards. The Committee shall comply with the Company's then-current level review of contracts and budget procedures.
