InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. Announces Executive Management Changes

MADISON HEIGHTS, Mich., May 18, 2017 /PRNewswire/ --InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. (NYSE MKT: INFU) ("InfuSystem" or the "Company"), a leading national provider of infusion pumps and related services for the healthcare industry in the United States and Canada, announced today that Eric Steen, director, President and Chief Executive Officer, has left the Company and resigned from the Company's Board of Directors effective immediately. The Board has appointed current Chairman of the Board, Gregg Lehman, Ph.D. as Executive Chairman to lead an "Office of the President," consisting of two directors and three senior management team members, to ensure a seamless transition until a new Chief Executive Officer has been appointed. The Board has retained the services of an executive management search firm to conduct a nationwide search for a permanent Chief Executive Officer.

Gregg Lehman, Executive Chairman of InfuSystem, said, "The ambulatory infusion market in which InfuSystem operates is undergoing a period of change necessitated by the effects of CMS ruling SE1609 announced in 2016. The Board strongly believes InfuSystem remains a financially strong company with employees possessing industry leading expertise that make it the best in the business. With the appropriate vision and leadership, we will be able to continue to grow this business, and drive shareholder value, in the years to come. While it is difficult to make changes, it is a sign of the vitality of the InfuSystem organization to move forward and break new ground that can lead to even greater rewards."

Dr. Lehman continued, "I would like to extend my thanks and appreciation to Eric Steen for his contributions to InfuSystem during his tenure. He has provided us a strong and diversified base to grow our business into the future. We wish him well in his future endeavors."

Members of the "Office of the President"
