Bank of Sydney Enhances Online and Mobile Banking Services with Fiserv

Bank to offer customers upgraded digital banking capabilities that make managing finances easier

SYDNEY & BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, today announced that Bank of Sydney will work with Fiserv to provide its consumer and small business customers with enhanced digital banking capabilities. The bank will implement DigitalAccess from Fiserv, an end-to-end solution hosted in a cloud environment, to support all online and mobile applications, infrastructure, and services offered by Bank of Sydney.

Bank of Sydney chose Fiserv in a competitive process to replace its current digital banking platform. The new offering allows Bank of Sydney to provide its customers with improved, reliable and secure digital banking experiences via online or mobile channels. The bank will be able to deliver new features and functionality to customers more quickly, improving their ability to access banking services when and where they choose. In addition, DigitalAccess easily integrates with the bank's core account processing platform, Signature[®] from Fiserv.

"Our customers are increasingly tech-savvy, globally connected and mobile. They want efficient and convenient ways to bank at their fingertips," said Miltos Michaelas, CEO, Bank of Sydney. "We selected Fiserv because they are a proven technology provider and offered a flexible solution that can grow with us. With this upgrade, we can more easily offer our customers the banking products and services they need to help them reach their financial goals."

To implement DigitalAccess, Bank of Sydney will utilise Managed Services from Fiserv. This service provides a team from Fiserv with expertise in IT projects, analysis and testing of systems and process, and employee training. The Fiserv team works directly with the bank's business and IT teams to prioritise and sequence key deliverables and utilises a dynamic working model to achieve key deliverables based on business needs. By relying on the proficiency of global subject matter experts from Fiserv, the bank can save time and reduce cost.

"Consumers and businesses expect to be able to manage their finances at their convenience and through the device of their choosing," said Robert Liong, managing director, Australia, New Zealand and Pacific Islands, Fiserv. "With a continued focus on their digital banking services, Bank of Sydney is delivering speed, ease and convenience to its customers through solutions designed to fit their daily lives."

DigitalAccess provides an omnichannel, readily deployable solution and a rich digital customer experience delivered via desktops, smartphones and tablets. With a responsive user interface, it displays the most appropriate interface based on the device the customer is using to access banking services. Additional features include personal financial management tools, online mobile phone top-up capabilities, biometric authentication for payments and balance transfers, actionable push notifications, and ATM and branch location searches.

Available to financial institutions outside the U.S., DigitalAccess is designed to help meet the needs of new or growing financial institutions that require a solution with packaged functionality that is easy to deploy. DigitalAccess offers the agility to meet fast-changing business and customer requirements, including the ability to scale as the business grows.

Across Asia Pacific, Fiserv solutions enable 75 clients in 13 countries, including some of the largest banks in Australia, Thailand, and Indonesia, to achieve best in class results.
