Union Bank & Trust Names Sara O. Rountree Senior Vice President and Head of Digital Strategy

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 19, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Union Bank & Trust ("Union") today announced it has named Sara O. Rountree as Senior Vice President and Head of Digital Strategy effective February 6, 2018.

"Sara will bring focus and energy to our team as we concentrate our efforts on digital offerings to help our customers bank more easily with Union," said John G. Stallings, president of Union Bank & Trust. "She'll report directly to me and be a valuable partner with technology, operations, marketing and each of our business segment leaders to build out and improve our digital solutions that will allow our customers the flexibility to bank when, where and how they want."

Rountree, 39, joins Union from Wells Fargo where she was Vice President, Credit Card Emerging Payments – Payments Security. She previously held various leadership positions focusing on digital strategies for personal lending and online banking. Rountree has also worked at SingleStone where she worked on the integration of HSBC/Capital One. She began her career at Capital One working in email marketing and communications in Richmond and auto finance in San Diego.

Rountree received her Bachelor of Science from Duke University.
