CORRECTING and REPLACING Intel Connects with Software Vendors at Engage 2009

In the "WHEN" section, event hours should read 6 a.m.-4 p.m. PDT (sted 12-10 p.m. PDT).

The corrected release reads:

INTEL CONNECTS WITH SOFTWARE VENDORS AT ENGAGE 2009

WHEN: Wednesday, June 3, 2009. Event hours are 6 a.m.-4 p.m. PDT.

WHERE: Engage 2009 will take place completely online. To register for the event and access the conference on June 3, visit the event page.

WHAT: Engage 2009 is the first virtual user conference for the Intel(R) Software Partner Program. It will feature live interactive presentations, online chats and an exhibition hall that will give attendees the information they need to reach new customers and grow their business by maximizing use of the Intel(R) Business Exchange. The Engage 2009 audience will also learn how to optimize performance, enable mobile connectivity and maximize battery life by taking advantage of Intel(R) Architecture and Intel(R) Integrated Graphics.

WHO: Attendees are independent software vendors that are members or prospective members of the Intel Software Partner Program.

GENERAL INFO: There is no cost for admission for Engage 2009. More information about the Intel Software Partner Program can be found at http://www.intel.com/partner.
