Amesite Launches AI and Technical Training Programs with Maricopa Corporate College

Online Learning Company Signs 5 Year Deal with Largest College System Signed to Date

DETROIT, Sept. 10, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amesite Inc. (NASDAQ: AMST), a leading artificial intelligence software company offering a cloud-based learning platform for business and education markets, announced today its agreement to provide professional learning programs to Maricopa Corporate College (MCOR), a division of the Maricopa County Community College District (MCCCD). As part of one of the largest community college systems in the nation, MCOR delivers workforce training and non-credit learning opportunities to develop Arizona's workforce.

The agreement marks the 7th college to sign a deal to offer the Amesite LCE platform. Installations span the US, with colleges in Alabama, Illinois, Louisiana, South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia and now, Arizona. Collectively, colleges that have chosen Amesite engage with over 200,000 learners each year.

Brandon Owens, Amesite's Vice President of Sales, said, “We are pleased to be winning deals with MCOR, given the significant role both MCOR and MCCCD play in workforce development. We have the ability to deliver low-cost, highly deployable programs that meet the needs of millions of learners, and our no-fee setup makes the decision to choose Amesite an easy one.”

Dr. Ann Marie Sastry, CEO of Amesite, said, "Our AI-powered solutions enable learners to get information – and support – in real time. We have long believed that AI-assisted professional training would replace traditional training and are pleased to see our solutions gaining acceptance, now with larger colleges. We are especially pleased to be the first to provide the right tools in this market."

MCCCD is Arizona's largest workforce developer, enrolling over 140,000 students annually and playing a vital role in shaping the future of the Greater Phoenix area. The District produces the second-largest number of college graduates in the state and creates 1 out of every 28 jobs in Maricopa County, contributing $7.9 billion to Arizona's regional economy.

About the Maricopa Community College District
