Daniel P. Penberthy, Rand's Executive Vice President, stated, "Without the leadership of the new Buffalo Angels, LLC investment fund Rand's $150,000 co-investment would not have been possible. Over the last year its members have both financed and assisted this young company in its early growth, and provided strong due diligence which resulted in the first investment out of their new $1.2 million Buffalo Angel fund. These same investors will also continue to mentor, assist, and advise this venture and is pleased to provide the funds needed to close out this financing."

"Several members of the Buffalo Angels initially invested in Grainful in 2013 and we've been impressed with the reception that their product has received from retailers, distributors and consumers over the past year. We are glad to participate in this investment round that will fund the company's growth," said Jack McGowan, Executive Director of Buffalo Angels, LLC.

"We are ecstatic to have the backing of Rand Capital and the Buffalo Angels and additional new investors that may be participating in our follow-on financing, as they bring a wealth of resources; finances, industry insight and relationships; to the table that are critical to a company at our stage of growth. Having such great partners on board is an important milestone for our business as we can now focus to make our vision, to bring all consumers the goodness of oats for dinner, a reality," said Jan Pajerski, President of Grainful.
