FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE ALGODON MANSION CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING OF THE VEUVE CLICQUOT LOUNGE AT ALGODON MANSION, BUENOS AIRES

NEW YORK, NY – (October 10, 2012): Scott Mathis, Founder of Buenos Aires' luxury hotel Algodon Mansion, is pleased to announce the Grand Opening of the Veuve Clicquot Lounge, located on the ground floor of the hotel. The themed event, titled "Dandy Night" where guests were encouraged to dress "truly chic", was attended by Argentine celebrities including Javier Iturriz, Facundo Pieres, Julieta Kemble and Justo Saavedra, Marina Achával, Concepción Blaquier, Iván de Pineda, Rosella Della Giovampola, Flavia Martini, Eduardo Costantini, Teodolina Escalante, Miguel Larreta, Paulina Trotz and Gonzalo Tiesi, Diego de Alzaga, Sandra Hillar, Andrea Martínez, Cristiano Ratazzi, Gerónimo Berger and Mafalda García, as well as the CEO of Moët Hennessy Argentina, Ramiro Otaño and his wife, among many others.

Algodon Mansion will continue a monthly "Dandy Night" party at the Veuve Clicquot Lounge, which will be open to the public.

"We are very excited about our partnership with Veuve Clicquot," says Scott Mathis, Chairman and Founder of Algodon Properties. "Veuve Clicquot's La Grande Dame champagne, La Grande Dame Vintage and Vintage Rose champagne perfectly complement the 5-star rated cuisine of Algodon Mansion's Chez Nous restaurant."

This is the second co-branding endeavor recently introduced by Algodon Mansion, Buenos Aires' only Relais & Châteaux hotel, having also partnered with the renowned Davidoff Cigars to create a stunning open-air, tented cigar lounge on its rooftop earlier this year
