About Boutellier Wine Shop

Boutellier is a unique, boutique wine store adjacent to the restaurant Tessa on Sunset Strip in West Hollywood. Created by Jordan Ogrun, Boutellier focuses on bottles not usually available outside the wineries that Ogrun sourced by visiting wineries around the world. Named Boutellier for the person in charge of the king's cellar in 18th century France, a neon key logo marks the separate entrance to the shop. The boutellier would be the only person who held the key to the king's cellar. Custom leather-trimmed wine packaging makes the shop a great place to pick up host gifts. At night, the shop becomes a private dining space for up to 40 people.
