Dance Music Powerhouse John Summit to Launch Exclusive Channel on SiriusXM

Experts Only Radio to launch March 27 on the SiriusXM app

NEW YORK, NY – March 25, 2026– SiriusXM today announced that dance music giant John Summit is launching an exclusive channel, Experts Only Radio, curated by the internationally acclaimed DJ and producer himself. The new channel will give fans unparalleled access to the genre-defying sounds that define Summit's world.

The channel will be available to subscribers exclusively on the SiriusXM app beginning Friday, March 27.

Experts Only Radio will take listeners on a musical journey without limits featuring a variety of sounds and styles that capture the pulse of global dance culture including trending electronic tracks, new releases from Summit's Experts Only record label, live DJ sets from his worldwide performances and the tracks that made him a chart-topping force.

In celebration of the new channel and Miami Music Week, John Summit will appear in front of a live audience in the SiriusXM Miami studios on Friday, March 27 ahead of the release of his sophomore album CTRL ESCAPE. The special interview will air live on SiriusXM's Experts Only Radio and SiriusXM's BPM (ch. 52) at 5:00 pm ET on Friday, March 27.

"Launching Experts Only Radio is something I've wanted to do for a long time. The whole idea behind Experts Only has always been about pushing boundaries in dance music and sharing the sounds that inspire me, whether it's brand-new records from the label, tracks I'm playing in my sets around the world, or underground gems that deserve more attention," said John Summit. "This channel is basically a direct line into my world—what I'm listening to, what I'm playing, and what's next in global dance culture. I'm pumped to bring that energy to SiriusXM and give fans a place where the music never stops."

"John Summit has carved out a path entirely his own, blending raw talent with a bold artistic voice, and his impact on today's electronic music landscape is unmatched," said Scott Greenstein, SiriusXM's President and Chief Content Officer. "We couldn't be more excited to launch his channel, giving listeners unprecedented access to his musical vision and the sounds shaping his global success."

Fans can also catch John Summit headlining Ultra Music Festival's mainstage on Sunday, March 29.

John Summit currently hosts a bi-weekly radio show "Experts Only Radio" featuring new and exclusive music from Summit's Experts Only record label, special mixes and more on SiriusXM's Diplo's Revolution (ch. 53), which airs every other Friday at 4pm ET.

About John Summit

John Summit is one of the most in-demand names in global dance music. The superstar DJ, producer, and label owner has amassed over a billion global streams, scored two #1 U.S. dance radio hits, and landed seven Top 10 tracks on the Billboard Hot Electronic/Dance Songs chart. Known for his explosive live shows, Summit consistently sells out major venues worldwide, from a lightning-fast, under-two-hour sellout at New York City's Madison Square Garden to three packed nights at L.A.'s Kia Forum and a headline date at BMO Stadium. His global rise continued with a debut at London's O2 Arena, followed by a sold-out year-ending performance at Folsom Field that drew 38,000 fans, and the launch of his groundbreaking Experts Only Festival NYC—a two-day event that brought 50,000 people to Randall's Island in September 2025. John Summit will make his Ibiza residency debut later this year, with his first-ever residency on the island as he headlines nine Mondays at [UNVRS]. Whether commanding an arena or an underground club, the Chicago native (now based in Miami) brings his signature high-octane energy to every set.

Behind the scenes, Summit is a meticulous and thoughtful artist. Formerly a CPA by day and music tutor by night, he now spends long hours in the studio crafting dynamic, emotionally resonant tracks. As a touring artist, he's headlined festivals around the world, including the Sahara Stage at Coachella 2024, and produced unforgettable events in unique locations — from the hills of Tennessee to snowy takeovers in Vail, Colorado, and Tahoe, Nevada — all under the banner of his label, Experts Only. Founded in pursuit of complete creative freedom, Experts Only is a global movement built on the principle of music without limits — blending house, techno, melodic, and everything in between. Summit's global hits like “Where You Are” (feat. HAYLA), “Human” (feat. Echoes), and “Go Back” with Sub Focus (feat. Julia Church) reflect that ethos. He has also been recognized for his impact in the dance music genre through nominations Billboard Music Awards, American Music Awards, and iHeartRadio Music Awards nominations.

On July 12, 2024, he released his highly anticipated debut album Comfort In Chaos. Exploring themes of vice and virtue, highs and lows, and the duality of the human experience, the album reveals the man behind the icon — pairing Summit's signature dancefloor energy with raw emotion and introspection. Building on this duality, Summit will release his new album CTRL ESCAPE on April, 15th — reframing that tension through a new lens: the clash between 9–5 monotony and the electric release of the rave. Sonically and visually tracing Summit's path from accountant to artist, the project positions music not just as an escape, but as a communal force—where collective euphoria becomes both rebellion and belonging.

About Experts Only

Experts Only is more than a record label—it's a global movement born from John Summit's pursuit of total creative freedom. Founded on the ethos of music without limits, Experts Only refuses to be boxed in, embracing a bold, genre-defying sound that spans house, techno, melodic, and everything in between. Since its inception, the label has become a platform for fearless artistry, showcasing standout releases from cutting-edge talents like Mau P, Kaskadee, Odd Mob, Layton Giordani, Cassian, Disco Lines, and Summit himself.

But Experts Only goes far beyond the studio. It's reshaping the idea of a live dance-music experience, hosting unforgettable events in unlikely settings—from cave raves tucked in the Tennessee hills to snowy mountain takeovers in Vail, Colorado and Tahoe, Nevada, all the way to the lush jungles of Tulum. The brand has scaled internationally to places like Ibiza and Amsterdam, where few American DJs have made such an impact, and has made its mark on major festivals like Bonnaroo with its own curated stage. Experts Only Festival NYC launched in 2025 and will return this year; the two-day event drew 50,000 attendees to Randall's Island. Experts Only was named Label of the Year at the 2025 Powertools Awards on SiriusXM.

At its core, Experts Only is building a tightly connected global community—artists and fans united by a love of dance music that challenges the norm and hits deeper. Every release, every event, and every experience is a testament to the label's mission: to push boundaries, set trends, and create a world where true creative expression reigns.
