A New Legacy Begins as Seven Seas Prestige™ Sets Sail on Its First Full Season

MIAMI, July 9, 2025: Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra luxury cruise line, has unveiled its 2027-2028 Voyage Collection featuring 234 new sailings that invite discerning travelers to explore the globe through immersive experiences that are Unrivaled at Sea™.

The new season spans Africa & Arabia, Alaska, Asia, Australia & New Zealand, Canada & New England, the Caribbean & Panama Canal, the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, South America and the South Pacific, offering guests endless opportunities to craft their own unforgettable memories. Guests can pre-register now at RSSC.com/2027-2028-voyage-collection, with reservations officially opening on July 23, 2025. Guests in the US and Canada who book by August 6 will enjoy a 50% reduced deposit.

“Our 2027-2028 Voyage Collection is a celebration of discovery, delivering 234 new adventures for travelers to experience the world in truly immersive and meaningful ways,” said Jason Montague, chief luxury officer of Regent Seven Seas Cruises. “From shorter escapes to epic journeys, every sailing is designed to offer the perfect balance of enriching destination experiences and the unrivaled luxury of life on board—from spacious all-suite accommodations and personalized service to unlimited shore excursions, gourmet dining, and fine wines and spirits.”

Among the standout features of the collection are 19 new ports of call, 5 epic Grand Voyages, and the 133-night 2028 World Cruise which will sail aboard Seven Seas Splendor® once more. Also included are 3 Immersive Overnight European itineraries—where every port of call offers an overnight stay—designed to provide deeper cultural connection and unhurried exploration.

explore 19 new ports of call, including Nanaimo, British Columbia; Yeosu, South Korea; San Andrés, Colombia; and Scrabster, Scotland.

The 2027-2028 Voyage Collection will mark new ship Seven Seas Prestige's™ first full season at sea, offering luxury travelers 44 unforgettable journeys through Northern Europe, the Mediterranean and the Caribbean. The ship will sail from iconic ports including Barcelona, Spain; London (Southampton), England; Rome (Civitavecchia), Italy; Athens (Piraeus), Greece; Miami, Florida; New York; Los Angeles, California; and Panama City, Panama.

Set for delivery in late 2026, Seven Seas Prestige marks Regent Seven Seas Cruises' first new ship class in a decade. The 77,000-ton vessel is 40% larger than previous ships yet accommodates just 10% more guests—hosting 822 guests with 630 crew for exceptional space and service. All-balcony suites span 12 categories, including four new designs such as the 8,794 sq. ft. Skyview Regent Suite—the largest all-inclusive, ultra luxury, cruise ship suite in history. Guests will enjoy cuisine across 11 dining experiences, including the new Mediterranean specialty restaurant, Azure.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises is The Most Inclusive Luxury Experience®, offering guests a seamless and indulgent experience from start to finish. The line's ever-expanding array of included luxuries includes unlimited shore excursions in every port of call, exquisite cuisine across specialty restaurants and al fresco venues, fine wines and premium spirits, in-suite liquor with a daily replenished mini-bar, unlimited internet access, valet laundry service, onboard entertainment, pre-paid gratuities, and a one-night pre-cruise hotel package for guests in Concierge Suites and above. For those seeking an elevated experience, Regent's Ultimate All-Inclusive Fare includes air travel, transfers between airport and ship, and Blacklane's private executive chauffeur service—allowing for a personalized journey from door to deck. Onboard, guests revel in Unrivaled Space at Sea®, with some of the most spacious accommodations and highest crew-to-guest ratios in the industry.
