Oceania Cruises® Introduces Immersive Digital Art Experience Aboard Newest Ship, Oceania Allura™

Oceania Allura Sets Sail as a Floating Canvas, Celebrating Creativity and Discovery Through an Inspiring Onboard Interactive Art Exhibition

MIAMI, Nov. 10, 2025 /PRNewswire/ --Oceania Cruises®, the world's leading culinary- and destination-focused luxury cruise line, is proud to introduce the exclusive digital Art Experience aboard its newest ship, Oceania Allura. Launching November 13, 2025, this immersive initiative invites travelers into a captivating realm of artistic expression, redefining the onboard enrichment that Oceania Cruises is renowned for, and elevating the travel experience for guests globally.

Featuring nearly 30 celebrated artworks from 14 artists across 7 countries, the Art Experience presents Roberto Matta, famed for his abstract expressionism, and award-winning Judy Pfaff, celebrated for spatial paintings and abstract installations. Additional artists include Bobbie Burgers and Eduardo Arranz-Bravo, showcasing diverse artworks in various mediums, from refined fine art to expressive sculpture.

Accessible via a bespoke custom-designed website, which guests can access via their mobile device, the experience is available exclusively on Oceania Allura, spanning Decks 5 and 6. QR codes discreetly displayed around the ship invite guests to explore intimate, emotional films, directed and produced by design agency CONDUCTR, revealing a personal perspective on the artist's process, inspirations and philosophies.

"The Art Experience is a testament to our commitment to create beauty and wonder in every dimension of our travel experience," said Jason Montague, Chief Luxury Officer of Oceania Cruises.

"This experience transforms Oceania Allura's spaces into a journey of discovery and reflection, allowing our guests to not only explore the wonders at sea, but also within the ship itself." CONDUCTR's co-founder, Jos van der Steen, added, "The Art Experience is one of the most meaningful projects we've had the privilege to deliver, created from the ground up by our team, in collaboration with Oceania Cruises. It reflects the care and detail that define the cruise line's approach to hospitality."

The collection centers around the Grand Lounge and the iconic Martinis bar, where ambiance and artistry blend seamlessly. Guests are encouraged to chart their own course through the Art Experience, engaging in a way that feels personal and unhurried. For those seeking a more structured journey, the digital platform offers a suggested route to guide exploration. Oceania Cruises also proudly presents a select range of the artworks as exclusive prints, available to purchase on board, allowing guests to journey home with a unique memory of their voyage.
