Equinix Appoints Shane Paladin as Chief Customer and Revenue Officer

SAP Veteran to Join the World's Digital Infrastructure Company®, Strengthening Global Go-to-Market Leadership

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., July 14, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Equinix, Inc. (Nasdaq: EQIX), the world's digital infrastructure company, today announced the appointment of Shane Paladin as Executive Vice President and Chief Customer and Revenue Officer (CCRO), effective immediately. With more than 20 years of global experience in go-to-market motions and partnering with product organizations, Paladin joins Equinix as the company continues its journey in delivering the digital infrastructure, data center footprint and interconnected ecosystems that enable customers to deliver the innovations that enrich our work, life and planet.

"Shane has an exceptional track record in leadership roles across numerous sales and service organisations, as well as in serving at the chief-executive level," said Adaire Fox-Martin, Chief Executive Officer and President, Equinix. "He is uniquely qualified to build upon the trusted relationships our customers expect, ensuring they have a frictionless experience that delivers ongoing value with the right level of support when and where they need it."

In the role of CCRO, Paladin leads the company's entire customer experience and overall go-to-market strategy. This includes Sales, Marketing, Customer Care and Experience, and Revenue Operations. Additionally, he oversees key account relationships and channel partnerships, as well as the leveraging of data, analytics and AI to optimize revenue-generating activities. Paladin will serve on the Equinix Global Executive Leadership Team, reporting to Equinix CEO and President Adaire Fox-Martin.

"For over 25 years, Equinix has been a critical component of its customers' success through a deep understanding of their industries and their business needs," said Paladin. "I'm excited to build on this foundation and Equinix's role as a trusted advisor, helping customers shorten the path in delivering seamless digital experiences and cutting-edge AI—quickly, easily and ubiquitously."

Paladin brings extensive experience in leading scaled organizations through transformation and change. He served for more than 11 years on two tours at SAP in a variety of customer-focused, services and international roles, including: President, Services; EVP Sales, Services; COO Greater China; and Managing Director, Hong Kong and Macau. In his most recent role at SAP, he was responsible for driving strategy, execution, customer success and growth across SAP's global services business, leading the transformation of the organization and the streamlining of the experience for SAP customers.

Most recently, Paladin served as CEO of Siteimprove, a multinational Software as a Service company that creates cloud-based tools and services for website governance and optimization. He has also served in leadership roles at SignalFx, Ayasdi and FocusFrame, as well as in advisory or board roles at Nordic Capital, SmartRent, and Board International.

He is a United States Army veteran and received his master's degree in Strategy and Innovation at the University of Oxford.
