MaxLinear, Inc. Announces the Departure of its CFO and Reaffirms Financial Guidance for 1Q 2018

- Adam Spice, CFO, to leave MaxLinear on May 23rd, 2018; he will assume similar role at privately held Rocket Lab, a space orbital launch vehicle provider based in Huntington Beach, California
- MaxLinear reaffirms financial guidance for 1Q 2018

CARLSBAD, Calif., April 02, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MaxLinear, Inc. (NYSE:MXL), a leading provider of radio frequency (RF), analog and mixed-signal integrated circuits for the connected home, wired and wireless infrastructure, and industrial and multimarket applications, today announced that Adam Spice, Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, has given notice that he will be leaving the Company on May 23, 2018.

"I have made the very difficult decision to leave MaxLinear to pursue another opportunity," said Mr. Spice. "I am proud to have been a member of an outstanding management team that has been successful in creating significant shareholder value, and in positioning MaxLinear to strongly grow across increasingly lucrative and scalable end-markets in the years ahead. I am eager to embark on my next adventure, in the role of Chief Financial Officer of Rocket Lab, an orbital launch provider based in Huntington Beach, California. I wish MaxLinear much continued success."

"Over the last seven years, starting in 2011, Adam played a key role as a part of our executive leadership team as we grew from a sub $100 million revenue company in 2011 to one that generated $421 million in revenues in 2017," commented Dr. Kishore Seendripu, Chairman and CEO of MaxLinear. "Adam's tireless efforts in this journey, both internally and externally, are greatly appreciated. He leaves a remarkable legacy and has built a highly competent and resilient finance, accounting, corporate development, IT & facilities team. At a personal level, I will miss working with Adam, who has been a great CFO and a close business advisor. On behalf of MaxLinear's employees and the Board of Directors, I wish Adam great success in his new endeavor."

"Adam will continue to support us in the transition process as we recruit a new CFO to build upon the great foundation that Adam has laid out over the last seven years," commented Dr. Kishore Seendripu, Chairman and CEO. MaxLinear will immediately begin a nationwide search to find a replacement for Mr. Spice.

In addition, the Company is reaffirming its guidance for the first quarter 2018.

About Rocket Lab, Inc. (<https://www.rocketlabusa.com>)

Rocket Lab's mission is to revolutionize the way we access space by developing and launching advanced rockets to put small payloads into orbit frequently and at a fraction of the cost of cumbersome traditional launch services. On January 21 2018, Rocket Lab reached orbit with the launch of the Electron vehicle and successfully deployed the company's first commercial payloads. It marked a significant milestone in eliminating commercial barriers and ushering in a new era of unprecedented access to space. Founded in 2006 by Peter Beck, Rocket Lab is headquartered in Los Angeles with operations and a launch site in New Zealand. It is a privately funded company with investors including Khosla Ventures, Bessemer Venture Partners, DCVC (Data Collective), Lockheed Martin, Promus Ventures and K1W1.
