From Yosemite and Zion to Saguaro and Mesa Verde, the home-style amenities provided at WorldMark by Wyndham resorts – such as multi-bedroom suites, separate living spaces and even fully-equipped kitchens in some destinations – make it easy to visit iconic national parks across the U.S. without cramming the whole family into a camper or RV. Plus, an in-suite washer and dryer make it easy to clean up everyone's muddy clothes after a long day of exploring. For families that love the great outdoors, WorldMark by Wyndham makes it easy to tick off at least a quarter of the country's stunning national parks.

"WorldMark by Wyndham celebrates the vacation journey and all the little moments that turn trips into lifelong memories," said Melody Bostic Brown, publisher of Destinations magazine and host of "Vacations Unpacked" travel series. "Giving families the opportunity to explore the many amazing national parks located near WorldMark by Wyndham resorts – without the need to forego the comforts of home – means creating an unforgettable experience that can be enjoyed again and again."

Many resorts within the WorldMark by Wyndham and Club Wyndham portfolio offer incredibly close proximity to national parks, along with access to stunning views and plenty of outdoor activities:

- WorldMark Estes Park – located 3 miles from Rocky Mountain National Park
- Club Wyndham Smoky Mountains – located 10 miles from Great Smoky Mountains National Park
- WorldMark Indio – located 16 miles from Joshua Tree National Park
- WorldMark Granby - Rocky Mountain Preserve – located 30 miles from Rocky Mountain National Park
- WorldMark Discovery Bay – located 30 miles from Olympic National Park
