Apollo Global Management Managing Partners Enter Into New Employment Agreements

Reinforces Alignment of Interests with Shareholders and Commitment to Apollo's Long-Term Growth

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Apollo Global Management, LLC (NYSE: APO) and its subsidiaries (collectively "Apollo" or the "Company") today announced that Leon Black, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Josh Harris, Senior Managing Director, and Marc Rowan, Senior Managing Director (collectively the "Managing Partners") have entered into new employment agreements with Apollo through July 19, 2015. The terms and conditions of the new agreements are substantially similar to the original employment agreements executed by the Managing Partners on July 13, 2007, whose five-year term expired on July 13, 2012. The new agreements will be in effect through July 19, 2015 and will continue to provide each of the Managing Partners with total annual compensation of $100,000.

Leon Black, Apollo Global Management's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said "Josh, Marc and I strongly believe that the signing of our new employment agreements under substantially similar terms to our original agreements demonstrates our unwavering commitment to Apollo and a clear alignment of interests with our fellow shareholders. As a leading global alternative investment manager, Apollo is well positioned for continued expansion and diversification and we remain enthusiastic about the Company's long-term growth prospects. After more than two decades together, we believe the best is yet to come for Apollo."
