#ICYMI (In Case You Missed It)

We recently published an informative AI webinar featuring Anantha Kancherla, former head of Meta's AI platform, and current member of Perimeter's Board, alongside Perimeter's CEO, Adrian Mendes.

That's a Wrap!

The Perimeter team had a highly successful outing at the annual meeting of the American Society of Breast Surgeons (ASBrS) showcasing our S-Series technology at a very busy booth! Our CEO, Adrian Mendes, summarized why this is such an exciting time at Perimeter in a LinkedIn post.

Just wrapped up at #ASBrS24. It's a magical point in a company's evolution when its customers start telling their colleagues that they MUST start using your products and all of a sudden you're getting cold called by new customers. The Perimeter Medical Imaging AI booth was full of those colleagues this week. Our sales team and supply chain team are about to be very busy. #getinline
