CLS Holdings USA To Deploy its Proprietary Extraction and Conversion Methodology

Increases Yield at Higher Quality with More Consistency

LAS VEGAS, NV / ACCESSWIRE / December 21, 2017 /CLS Holdings USA, Inc. (OTCQB: CLSH) "CLS," a development stage diversified cannabis company operating as Cannabis Life Science, is pleased to announce its plans to deploy the company's proprietary extraction and conversion technology upon completion of its pending acquisition of Oasis Cannabis. The proprietary process differs from others who typically use ethanol. The resulting finished product is cleaner and provides for more Delta 9 THC.

Ben Sillitoe, CEO and Co-Founder of Oasis Cannabis, commented, "As we move forward with the expansion of our facilities the opportunity to implement this technology is exciting. Our goal at Oasis is to supply our customers with a superior product that is in high demand."

Jeff Binder, Chairman and CEO, stated, "We have spent years developing this technology and with the previously announced pending acquisition of Oasis it is our belief it will add value to the Oasis customers and CLS shareholders."

About Oasis Cannabis (<https://oasiscannabis.com>)

Oasis Cannabis has operated a cannabis dispensary in the Las Vegas market since dispensaries first opened in Nevada in 2015, and has been recognized as one of the top marijuana retailers in the state. Its location, within walking distance to the Las Vegas Strip and Downtown Las Vegas, in combination with its delivery service to residents allows it to efficiently serve both locals and tourists in the Las Vegas area. The company recently commenced wholesale offerings of cannabis in Nevada with the launch of its City Trees brand of cannabis concentrates and cannabis-infused products in August 2017. An expansion of its cultivation and production facility is currently underway and is expected to be completed during the second quarter of 2018.
