Professional Diversity Network Announces Executive Transitions And Post-Transaction Opportunities

CHICAGO, Dec. 22, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Professional Diversity Network, Inc. (NASDAQ:IPDN) ("PDN" or "the Company"), a developer and operator of online networks that provide networking and access to employment opportunities for women and other diverse professionals in the United States, today announced several executive officer transitions and identified the opportunities it intends to pursue following the successful closing of its transaction with Cosmic Forward Limited ("CFL").

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Maoji (Michael) Wang to CEO; Katherine Butkevich to NAPW CEO; David Mecklenburger to depart; Xin (Adam) He to Interim CFO
- Developing new U.S. business lines
- Exporting the Company's networking business to China
- Developing new business lines in China

On December 22, 2016, the Company appointed Maoji (Michael) Wang as Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Wang is currently a director of the Company and is Chief Executive Officer and an investor in CFL. He is also the managing partner of Beijing Daqian Law Firm and has held that position since November 2005. He previously has served as vice president of GNet Group PLC, the successful Chinese e-commerce company, and Chief Executive Officer of Tibet Weibai Investment Fund Management Co., Ltd. since March 2016, Guangzhou Gaixin Network Technology Development Co., Ltd. since May 2016 and Guangzhou Yougaojiu Marketing Management Co., Ltd since June 2016. Initially, Mr. Wang will not be an employee of the Company. At the same time, the Company transitioned Katherine Butkevich from CEO to CEO of the Company's largest subsidiary by revenue, NAPW. In addition, the Company announced the departure of David Mecklenburger, CFO, who is leaving to pursue a new senior executive position, effective as of December 31, 2016. The Company is currently in the process of finding a permanent replacement for Mr. Mecklenburger. Mr. Xin (Adam) He will serve as the Interim CFO of the Company beginning January 1, 2017.

Mr. Jim Kirsch, the Company's founder of its original careers business, previous CEO and current Co-Chairman of its Board of Directors, applauded the changes, "We have recently re-constituted our Board of Directors and its various committees, and have taken these organizational steps to allow us to pursue our strategic opportunities, with Mr. Wang leading our global vision and expansion into China and Ms. Butkevich running NAPW, our largest division."

Mr. Michael Wang stated, “I am very proud of the team we are building at PDN. In the first 45 days since we closed our transaction on November 7, we have worked together to identify strengths, weaknesses and opportunities, and have already started to build cross-functional teams to address each of those. Given what we have seen so far, we are all very enthusiastic about our future.”

Mr. Jingbo Song, Co-Chairman of PDN’s Board of Directors, agreed noting, “We held our first Board meeting the week that we closed. In the brief time since then, we have met again to review qualifications and understand our resources, which has allowed us to appoint our committee members and chairs, develop a working relationship and focus those resources toward the goal of profitably growing this business and maximizing value to our stockholders.”

Mr. Wang noted that the Company has identified multiple areas of opportunity which, if realized, may position PDN for healthy growth into the future, including:

- (1) Leveraging the Company’s relationship with CFL and its affiliates’ technical expertise, Chinese contacts and resources, and the Company’s existing human and technology capital, to develop new U.S. business lines, potentially including a China-U.S. education brokerage and an e-commerce business;
- (2) Developing a PDN wholly foreign-owned enterprise (“WFOE”) in China and using both the Company’s existing expertise and related resources in the networking business and CFL’s China expertise and contacts to expand the NAPW networking business and other potential educational and training businesses to China;
- (3) Developing a PDN wholly-owned subsidiary or Special Purpose Vehicle (“SPV”) in Hong Kong, and leveraging both PDN and its relationship with CFL to develop new businesses through the SPV in China, potentially including a broad-scale education platform;
- (4) Identifying financing in the capital markets to help with the company expansion.

Mr. Kirsch is leading the Company’s U.S. management of these opportunities. He explained that “our partners at CFL in general, and Mr. Wang in particular, have worked with us to develop a very clear vision with a realistic roadmap that we believe gives us a legitimate opportunity for success. Since closing we have already made significant headway toward each of our aforesaid opportunity areas, and we have teams in place and are making progress on each. Having been the steward of our shareholder’s value since PDN went public in early 2013, I am incredibly heartened by the opportunities before us and my belief in our ability to realize them.”
