Terra Tech Corp. Strengthens Corporate Governance

Company takes key steps to improve compliance and enhance shareholder value to work toward its long-term goal of a NASDAQ up-listing

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif., Nov. 5, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Terra Tech Corp. (OTCQX: TRTC) ("Terra Tech" or the "Company"), a vertically integrated cannabis-focused agriculture company, today announced that the Company's Board of Directors ("the Board") has initiated several enhancements to its corporate governance program to assist the Board in the exercise of its responsibilities to the Company and its stockholders.

"The adoption of these corporate governance policies is an important step in building a comprehensive and effective corporate compliance program," said Derek Peterson, CEO of Terra Tech. "As we work toward our long-term goal of up-listing to the NASDAQ, we're doing everything we can to ensure Terra Tech upholds the highest level of transparency, integrity and responsibility to stockholders."

The corporate governance enhancements include the establishment of the following three committees:

- The Audit Committee, whose primary function is to assist the board in its general oversight of Terra Tech's accounting and financial reporting processes, audits of its financial statements, and internal control and audit functions. In addition to establishing the committee, the Board also adopted an Audit Committee Charter and appointed two independent committee members.
- The Compensation Committee, whose primary function is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities relating to the compensation of the Company's executive officers, and to oversee and advise on the adoption of policies that govern the Company's compensation programs. In addition to establishing the committee, the Board also adopted a Compensation Committee Charter and appointed two independent committee members.
- The Governance and Nominating Committee, whose primary function is to determine the slate of director nominees for election to the Board, and identify and recommend candidates to fill vacancies occurring between annual stockholder meetings. In addition to establishing the committee, the Board also adopted a Governance and Nominating Committee and appointed two independent committee members.

In addition, the Board has adopted a Code of Ethics, which is designed to promote honest and ethical conduct among all Terra Tech directors, officers and employees.
