II. Membership

The Committee will consist of not less than two members of the Board. Each member of the Committee must be “independent” as defined by the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) and the NYSE Texas. At least two members of the Committee must be “non-employee directors” (within the meaning of Section 16 of the Exchange Act) in order for transactions in equity securities of the Company, or derivatives of those equity securities, between the Company and any executive officer or director of the Company who is subject to Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) which are approved by the Committee to be exempt pursuant to Rule 16b-3 (“Rule 16b-3”) under the Exchange Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing membership requirements, no action of the Committee will be invalid by reason of any such requirement not being met at the time such action is taken.

The members of the Committee and its Chairman will be selected annually by the Board, based on the recommendation of the Nominating, Governance and Sustainability Committee, and will serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chairman is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. The Committee may form and delegate some or all of its authority to subcommittees when it deems appropriate, whether or not such delegation is specifically contemplated under any plan or program.

Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Each year, the Committee will:

- Review, modify (if necessary) and approve the Company’s peer companies, if any, and data sources for purposes of evaluating the Company’s compensation competitiveness and establishing the appropriate competitive positioning of the levels and mix of compensation elements;
- Review, modify (if necessary) and approve corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and the Company’s other executive officers;
- Evaluate the performance of the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, the Company’s other executive officers in light of the Company’s executive compensation goals and objectives;

- Review, evaluate and set the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and, in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, the Company's other executive officers based on the Committee's evaluation, including salary, bonus, incentive compensation, equity compensation, employee benefits and any special or supplemental benefits; and
 - In determining any element of compensation, the Committee may consider, among other factors, the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar compensation to individuals in similar positions at comparable companies, and the awards historically given to the Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers.
 - Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Chief Executive Officer may not be present during any voting or deliberations of the Committee regarding his or her own compensation.
- B. Each year, the Committee will review and consider the recommendations of the Company's Chief Executive Officer regarding, and approve, the compensation structure for all other employees.
- C. Each year, the Committee will review the Company's compensation policies and practices for the purpose of (i) mitigating risks arising from these policies and practices that could reasonably have a material adverse effect on the Company, (ii) ensuring that the compensation programs are aligned with stockholders' best interests and do not motivate the Company's employees to take excessive risks and (iii) ensuring compliance with applicable laws and regulations affecting compensation and benefits.
- D. At least once each year and otherwise as needed, the Committee will review and consider the effectiveness of the Company's existing incentive compensation and equity-based plans and, to the extent the Committee deems necessary, modify such plans or develop new plans to better effectuate the Committee's compensation objectives. The Committee will review and approve all awards with respect to incentive compensation and equity-based plans and will perform such actions and duties as are necessary to administer such plans pursuant to their terms and conditions and in conformance with any further restrictions placed thereon by the Board.
- E. As often as it deems necessary and appropriate, the Committee will review the Company's equity compensation plans to determine whether stockholders need be given the opportunity to vote on the plans, as may be required by law and the listing standards of the NYSE and the NYSE Texas.
- F. The Committee will periodically review director compensation and make a recommendation to the Board regarding the form and amount of director compensation. The Committee will consider that a director's independence may be jeopardized if (a) his or her compensation and perquisites exceed customary levels, (b) the Company makes substantial charitable contributions to organizations with which the director is affiliated or (c) the Company enters into consulting contracts with (or provides other indirect forms of compensation to) the director or an organization with which the director is affiliated. Directors who are employees of the Company may not receive any additional compensation for service on the Board.

- G. At least once each year and otherwise as needed, the Committee will review and approve, for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers of the Company: (i) all benefits and perquisites and (ii) all employment agreements, severance arrangements and change in control arrangements.
- H. The Committee will review and approve, or review and recommend to the Board for its approval of, any transaction in equity securities of the Company, or derivatives of those equity securities, between the Company and any executive officer or director of the Company who is subject to the reporting and short-swing liability provisions of Section 16 of the Exchange Act. For any such transaction to be exempt under Rule 16b-3, the transaction must be approved either (i) by the Board, (ii) by the full Committee if all members then in office qualify as "non-employee directors" within the meaning of Rule 16b-3, or (iii) by a subcommittee composed solely of two or more members of the Committee who so qualify.
- I. The Committee will conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any executive officer, employee or adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisers engaged by the Committee.
- J. The Committee will have the authority, in its sole discretion, to retain or obtain the advice of legal counsel, compensation consultants or other experts and advisers (collectively, "Compensation Advisors"), including the authority to appoint, approve reasonable fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any Compensation Advisor, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of (a) compensation to any Compensation Advisor engaged by the Committee and (b) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties. The Committee may select a Compensation Advisor (other than in-house legal counsel) only after taking into consideration all of the factors relevant to that person's independence from the Company's senior management, including the following:

 - whether the firm who employs the Compensation Advisor or its affiliates (the "Advisory Firm") performs any additional services for the Company;
 - the amount of fees payable to the Advisory Firm as a percentage of the Advisory Firm's total revenues;

- any policies or procedures of the Advisory Firm that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
 - any business or personal relationships of the Compensation Advisor with any member of the Committee;
 - whether the Compensation Advisor owns any stock of the Company;
 - any business or personal relationship the Compensation Advisor or the Advisory Firm has with any executive officer of the Company; and
 - any additional factors affecting the independence of the Compensation Advisor or the Advisory Firm as the Committee is required to take into account as identified by the NYSE, the NYSE Texas or the Securities and Exchange Commission, or as it otherwise deems appropriate.
- K. The Committee will periodically, and no less than annually, reconsider the factors set forth above with respect to any Compensation Advisor whom it has previously selected or from whom it continues to receive advice.
- L. The Committee will review and discuss with the Company’s senior management the CD&A to be included in the Company’s Proxy Statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K, as applicable, and, based on that review, determine whether to recommend to the Board that the CD&A be included in the Proxy Statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
- M. Each year, the Committee will prepare a Compensation Committee Report as required by Item 407(e)(5) of Regulation S-K and publish the report in the Company’s Proxy Statement or Annual Report on Form 10-K, as applicable, in accordance with applicable rules and regulations.
- N. The Committee will review and recommend to the Board how frequently the Company should permit stockholders to have an advisory vote on executive compensation (“Say-On-Pay”). This review will take into account the historical results of stockholder advisory votes on the frequency of Say-On-Pay resolutions at the Company.
- O. Following each stockholder meeting at which Say-On-Pay resolutions are proposed for a stockholder advisory vote, the Committee will review the results of the advisory vote, and consider whether to make any adjustments to the Company’s executive compensation policies and practices.
- P. The Committee will periodically review, modify (if necessary) and administer the Company’s clawback policy (as amended from time to time, the “Clawback Policy”) and any other compensation recovery or “clawback” policy adopted by the Committee in the future, if any, that such policies comply with all applicable rules and regulations, including the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the listing standards of the NYSE and the NYSE Texas, and consult with the Audit Committee of the Board and the appropriate member of management as needed in order to properly administer and carry out the purpose of the Clawback Policy.

- Q. The Committee shall, in consultation with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, periodically review the Company's management succession planning, including policies for Chief Executive Officer selection and succession in the event of the incapacitation, retirement or removal of the Chief Executive Officer, and evaluations of, and development plans for, any potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer.
- R. The Committee shall, as applicable, oversee the Company's human capital management strategies and initiatives relating to its executive officers and employees, including leadership development, and talent, cultural and inclusion management.
- S. Each year, the Committee will review the adequacy of this Charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
- T. The Committee will also undertake such additional activities within the scope of its functions as the Committee may from time to time determine or as may otherwise be required by law, the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws or corporate governance guidelines or by directive of the Board.

IV. Procedures

- A. Meetings. The Committee will meet at such times and from time to time as it deems necessary to fulfill its responsibilities. In addition, the Committee will meet at the call of its Chairman, two or more members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Board. The Committee will meet at least quarterly and as frequently as circumstances dictate. Meetings of the Committee may be in person, by conference call or video or by unanimous written consent, in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.
