Financial Performance – for the year ended 31 December 2022

- BofA Europe financial statements for 2022 show $2,028m (2021: $1,992m) of revenue and $539m profit after tax (2021: $611m).
- Results are derived from the Company’s core Global Banking and Global Markets activities and its Support Services activities. The primary driver for the decrease in profit is the increase in credit provisions associated with lending activities.
- Global Banking and Global Markets contributed $1,850m (2021: $1,772m) in revenue, with the increase driven by net interest income as a result of increasing interest rates.
- The Support Services segment contributed $178m (2021: $220m) to total revenue. This has decreased from the prior year following the completion of the transfer of the Company’s Preferred Service Provider responsibilities and its related Support Services activities to the London branch of BANA in April 2021.
