Stratasys Announces New Oklahoma-Based Reseller, W.D. Distributing

MINNEAPOLIS & REHOVOT, Israel--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Stratasys Ltd. (Nasdaq:SSYS), a leading global provider of 3D printing and additive manufacturing solutions, announced the addition of reseller, W.D. Distributing.

W.D. Distributing, the largest machine tool service organization in Oklahoma, will now be a reseller of the full line of Stratasys authorized products. W.D. Distributing has 35 years of experience working with customers on the manufacturing floor repairing and maintaining a variety of machine tools and production equipment.

"The addition of W.D. Distributing as a reseller into the Stratasys family is an important step in expanding our presence in manufacturing," says Gilad Gans, President, Stratasys North America. "The combination of a leading organization such as W.D. and our world-class additive manufacturing technology will allow W.D. customers to gain a competitive advantage by streamlining workflows, becoming more agile with manufacturing processes and realizing tangible ROI by incorporating 3D printing on the manufacturing floor."

"W.D. Distributing is pleased to now be on board with Stratasys. Our 35 years of quality service is now enhanced with the addition of being able to offer our customers a top-quality line of products in the 3D printing industry," said Steve Daman, Service Manager of W.D. Distributing. "We see an opportunity to impact a manufacturing segment that has not yet seen the potential additive manufacturing can provide."
