Ameresco Selects ADVISIRY PARTNERS As Its Investor Relations Firm

FRAMINGHAM, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ameresco, Inc. (NYSE:AMRC), a leading energy efficiency and renewable energy company, has engaged New York-based financial communications firm ADVISIRY PARTNERS as its new investor relations firm, effective immediately.

ADVISIRY PARTNERS was officially established in November 2017 as a new firm and successor to one of the largest investor relations firms in the U.S., Morgen-Walke Associates. With a combined 60 years of sell-side and buy-side experience, the firm will work with Ameresco's senior management team on investor relations strategies, messaging and outreach. The ADVISIRY team representing Ameresco will be co-led by firm partners Eric Prouty and Lynn Morgen, as well as Director Vicky Nakhla.

"While retaining our leadership position in the energy services market, Ameresco continues to take advantage of the expansion and diversification of the distributed generation market, which remains an important growth driver for the company," said George Sakellaris, President and CEO of Ameresco. "We are pleased to bring on ADVISIRY as our investor relations partner as we move forward in this next phase of growth, particularly as we continue building our brand domestically and internationally as an innovative technology integrator."
