Vaunt Launches Third-Party Operator Program Following Successful flyExclusive Integration

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Volato Group, Inc. ("Volato," or the "Company") (NYSE American: SOAR) announced that following the recent integration of flyExclusive, the fifth-largest operator in the United States, Vaunt, launched its third-party operator program. This initiative marks a new chapter for Vaunt, as the platform welcomes other operators to join and benefit from its technology platform and extensive member base.

With the integration of flyExclusive, Vaunt has demonstrated its capability to provide operators with a dynamic channel for maximizing the utilization of empty leg flights. Now, other operators can access this same value proposition, benefiting from increased visibility, enhanced operational efficiency, and the opportunity to grow alongside Vaunt.

"Opening Vaunt to third-party operators is an exciting step forward for us," said Nicholas Cooper, President of Vaunt. "With the experience learned from flyExclusive's integration, we're now inviting other operators to join our platform and become part of a growing community that offers private travelers unmatched access to empty leg flights. This expansion not only adds value for our members but also offers operators the chance to enhance their reach and impact across the industry."

Operators interested in joining Vaunt's third-party operator program are encouraged to reach out to Vaunt and learn more by visiting the dedicated operator page at <https://flyvaunt.com/operator>.
