Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Announces First-Ever Wellness Cruise with ELEMIS in 2027 Spotlight Voyage Collection

Seven Specially Curated Sailings will also Feature Culinary Aficionados Mark and Kate Bittman, Journeys with Prestigious Vineyards and Winemakers, and a Fascinating Genealogy Cruise with Ancestry.com

MIAMI, June 11, 2026: Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra-luxury cruise line, has announced its 2027 Spotlight Collection, featuring seven sailings that will inspire guests with total immersion into their passions and interests. The collection spans voyages aboard Seven Seas Grandeur®, Seven Seas Splendor®, Seven Seas Voyager®, and the brand's newest ship, Seven Seas Prestige™, set against some of Europe's most captivating destinations. Together, they offer a diverse range of themes, from wellness and genealogy to gastronomy and fine wine, providing guests distinct opportunities for discovery. Each voyage will feature thoughtful programming tailored to the theme of the sailing.

"Spotlight Voyages represent the evolution of luxury travel - guests are looking not only to see the world, but also to engage through their personal interests and passions," said Wesley D'Silva, president of Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "Our 2027 collection has been crafted to bring together world-class experts and iconic luxury brands in a way only Regent can deliver. From exclusive culinary and wine experiences to our inaugural wellness and longevity voyage, each sailing offers a unique perspective while delivering the unrivaled comfort and service of The World's Most Luxurious Fleet."

Highlights of the 2027 Spotlight Collection include Regent's inaugural Spotlight Voyage on Wellness & Longevity with ELEMIS, reflecting the growing demand for holistic well-being, longevity, and transformative travel. Developed in partnership with luxury skincare and wellness brand ELEMIS, the sailing will explore nutrition, mindfulness, movement, and healthy aging through expert-led sessions and wellness-focused activities. The Spotlight Voyage will also take place aboard Regent's newest ship, Seven Seas Prestige™, the brand's first new ship class in a decade, setting a new standard for ultra-luxury cruising, including four new suite categories and new dining experiences that further enhance the all-inclusive luxury offering.

The collection also features an epicurean Spotlight Voyage with culinary experts Mark and Kate Bittman who will explore food, culture, and storytelling through live podcast discussions and culinary experiences inspired by regional cuisine. Meanwhile, a series of wine-led Spotlight Voyages will invite guests to delve deeper into the world of viticulture alongside acclaimed hosts and winemakers, offering curated tastings, expert insights, and immersive discussions that celebrate craftsmanship, heritage, and innovation across some of the world's most distinguished wine regions.

The collection is further enhanced by a unique Spotlight on Heritage in partnership with Ancestry.com, providing guests with the opportunity to explore their personal histories through expert-led genealogy research, bespoke consultations, and deeply meaningful, place-based discoveries.
