Ulta Beauty Appoints Martin Brok and Stephenie Landry to Its Board of Directors

BOLINGBROOK, III.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Ulta Beauty, Inc. (NASDAQ: ULTA) today announced the appointments of Martin Brok and Stephenie Landry to its Board of Directors and as members of its Audit and Compensation Committees, effective September 1, 2025.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Martin and Stephenie to our Board of Directors,” said Kecia Steelman, President & Chief Executive Officer. “Martin is an accomplished, strategic leader with deep international experience in the areas of retailing, merchandising, and brand strategy, while Stephenie has strong operational and digital innovation expertise and sustainability leadership. Their transformative track records and strategic vision will be invaluable as we navigate our next chapter of growth.”

Mr. Brok joins the Ulta Beauty Board with over 35 years of global leadership in consumer brands and retail innovation. As Founder & CEO of mb Capital Advisors and Operating Partner at Advent International, he advises and invests in disruptive brand ventures worldwide. He previously served as Global President & CEO of Sephora, as President of Starbucks – Europe, Middle East & Africa, and as Global COO of DTC at Nike, and held senior roles at Burger King, and The Coca-Cola Company involving international operations across Europe, Middle East, Asia-Pacific, and the Americas. He currently serves on the boards of Revlon (Compensation Committee), Oatly (NASDAQ: OTLY; Chair, Compensation), END. Clothing (Chairman of the Board; member, Audit Committee), Poke House (Chairman of the Board), and Qorium (Chair, Audit Committee), and previously served on the boards of Tous S.L. (Chair, Audit Committee; member, Compensation Committee), Grupo Axo S.A.P.I. de C.V. (Chair, Compensation Committee), Purpose Brands and London First and on the Strategic Advisory Board of Primark Ltd. (LSE: ABF). He holds a B.B.A. in Marketing with a minor in International Business from Georgia State University and completed Harvard Business School’s Program for Management Development.

Ms. Landry joins the Ulta Beauty Board with more than 20 years of leadership in consumer technology, retail operations, and strategic transformation. She previously served as Chief Operating Officer at Honor Technology, an eldercare services company, where she oversaw operational scale-up and process optimization. Prior to that, she held leadership roles at Amazon, including as Vice President of Worldwide Grocery, Vice President of Amazon Fresh & Whole Foods Online, and Vice President of Prime Now, where she led a unified digital grocery strategy across all platforms, and later drove the company’s net-zero carbon plan as Vice President of Sustainability. She holds a BA from Wellesley College and an MBA from the University of Michigan.

With these appointments, Ulta Beauty’s Board now consists of 12 directors, including 67% women, 33% racially diverse, and 50% appointed within the last five years.
