Mr. Rashkin has worked with global technology companies for more than 30 years, establishing international tax structures and managing a wide variety of functions. Prior to joining Marvell, Mr. Rashkin spent 13 years at Apple Computer, where he held positions as General Manager of Asia and Latin America, Director of Marketing for Apple Japan, Director of International Legal, Director of International Business Development, and Director of Taxes, Customs and Export Licensing. Prior to Apple, Mr. Rashkin handled tax planning for Digital Equipment Corporation for six years.

"Mike already is a significant contributor to the Company and has built a strong tax organization. He has an in depth expertise in finance as well as a solid familiarity with our various businesses," said Sehat Sutardja, Marvell's Chief Executive Officer. "He will immediately step in and help guide the company through a critical time as we continue to build a solid platform for growth."

Mike holds a master's of laws degree from New York University. He is the author of "Research and Development Tax Incentives," published by Commerce Clearing House in 2003. His most recent book, "The Practical Guide to Research and Development Tax Incentives" will be published this year.

Marvell has retained Heidrick & Struggles to find a permanent CFO.
