"Since Weili Dai co-founded Marvell, she has been a driving force for the company's success. Her dedication to our customers, partners and stakeholders is widely recognized by the industry. Weili brings to the leadership role a long-term vision, integrity, strong principles, unrelenting drive, customer focus and passion for Marvell," said Dr. Sehat Sutardja, Chairman and CEO of Marvell. "We are very thankful for Weili's contributions to the tremendous success of Marvell since its inception. Furthermore, we now look forward to her continued leadership and increased role through our next stage of growth as our president."

Weili Dai is one of the most successful women entrepreneurs in the world today. Widely considered a technology visionary, she is the only woman co-founder of a global semiconductor company. Since co-founding Marvell in 1995, Ms. Dai's business acumen, strategic thinking, endless passion and personal network have led to Marvell's ascent to one of the top semiconductor companies in the world. Her close relationship with customers, built on a foundation of trust, has earned her a tremendous reputation for professionalism and integrity throughout the technology industry. Ms. Dai has served a pivotal role in creating some of Marvell's most important strategic partnerships. Under her leadership, Marvell's technology has become an integral component of the world's most important products in enterprise, communications, mobile computing, consumer and emerging markets.
