NetSol Technologies Launches New Corporate Website

CALABASAS, Calif., April 28, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) --NetSol Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq:NTWK), a global provider of IT and enterprise software solutions, today announced the launch of its new corporate website, www.netsoltech.com, serving as an all-purpose portal for NetSol's stakeholders.

With intuitive navigation and information architecture, the new site provides comprehensive product information, articles, whitepapers, case studies, events, videos, sector specific insights, and an enhanced investor relations section that includes the ability to subscribe to news and regulatory filings as they occur. Additionally, the new site provides a richer user experience, compatible with today's browsers and mobile devices, and will soon be made available in a variety of languages to cater to NetSol's global audience.

"The updated site is part of our ongoing effort to enhance the availability and accessibility of quality information and content to our stakeholders," said Roger Almond, CFO of NetSol. "We invite current and potential customers, shareholders, and others to visit the site to learn more about our newest products, services, social responsibility initiatives, and to stay up to date on our news and developments."
