Carroll's partnership with Salem returns her to national radio syndication for both commercial and non-commercial stations. Throughout her career, she has worked at major market Christian radio stations, including 89.3 KSBJ-FM in Houston, 91.9 WGTS in Washington, D.C. and K-LOVE national network. Most recently, Carroll worked at Sacramento's Adult Contemporary Station, KYMX-FM Mix 96.1. When asked about being on the Salem/Today's Christian Music team Carroll stated, "I'm over the moon to be back in Christian radio with Salem Music Network. It's like coming home. I look forward to sharing stories of listeners choosing bravery, and encouraging each other to live a strong and courageous life during a time when we need it most."

According to Salem Music Network Nashville Program Director Jeremy Sweat, "Amanda Carroll is a force that can elevate the quality of a station instantly. She knows how to find the right camera angle and bring life authentically to the listener. She understands how to keep the content fresh, fun and interesting."
